The Paradoxes of Posterity Benjamin Hoffmann, 2020-05-21 The impetus for literary creation has often been explained as an attempt to transcend the mortality of the human condition through a work addressed to future generations Failing to obtain literal immortality or to turn their hope toward the spiritual immortality promised by religious systems literary creators seek a symbolic form of perpetuity granted to the intellectual side of their person in the memory of those not yet born while they write In this book Benjamin Hoffmann illuminates the paradoxes inherent in the search for symbolic immortality arguing that the time has come to find a new answer to a perennial question Why do people write Exploring the fields of digital humanities and book history Hoffmann describes posterity as a network of interconnected memories that constantly evolves by reserving a variable and continuously renegotiated place for works and authors of the past In other words the perpetual safeguarding of texts is delegated to a collectivity that is nonexistent at the moment when a writer addresses it one whose nature is characterized by impermanence and instability Focusing on key works by Denis Diderot tienne Maurice Falconet Giacomo Casanova Fran ois Ren de Chateaubriand and Jean Paul Sartre Hoffmann considers the authors representations of posterity the representation of authors by posterity and how to register and preserve works in the network of memories In doing so Hoffmann reveals the three great paradoxes in the quest for symbolic immortality the paradoxes of belief of identity and of mediation Theoretically sophisticated and convincingly argued this book contends that there is only one truly serious literary problem the transmission of texts to posterity It will appeal to specialists in literature in particular eighteenth century French literature as well as scholars and students of philosophy and book history quintessential Frenchman one likely pictures Jean Gabin 1904 1976 The son of music hall performers the Paris born actor grew up in the entertainment business His onscreen debut in the 1930 s marked the beginning of many memorable roles in films such as La Grande Illusion 1937 and mile Zola s La B te Humaine 1938 His performances would earn him international recognition and establish his reputation as one of the greatest stars of film noir Pausing his performances on screen Gabin joined the Allied struggle of WWII Serving under General Charles De Gaulle in the Free French Forces as a tank commander Gabin was awarded several medals for his service Upon his return to acting after the war he became the embodiment of the uniquely French spirit a persona that would define his future roles In Jean Gabin The Actor Who Was France Joseph Harriss tells the story of this French icon This well researched biography documents Gabin s life from his start as a reluctant singer and dancer in Parisian music halls to his rise to film superstardom Harriss recounts the actor s multi faceted persona including his famously fiery temper his tumultuous love affairs including a six year relationship with the German star Marlene Dietrich and his military valor With this enthralling work film enthusiasts can gain an appreciation of France s quintessential movie star and his lasting impact on world cinema during its Golden Age Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema Darren Waldron,2009 Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema combines close film analysis with a small scale qualitative investigation of audience responses to examine images of queerness in contemporary French popular cinema and their reception Through its blending of the textual and the empirical this book provides a unique insight into the ways in which sexuality and gender are represented on the cinema screen as well as the spectator reactions they elicit Since the mid 1990s depictions of lesbians gay men and queer forms of sexual desire and identity have shifted to the mainstream of French cinematographic representation as evidenced by the box office success of a series of highly commercial comic films including Gazon maudit Josiane Balasko 1995 P dale douce Gabriel Aghion 1996 Le Placard Francis V ber 2000 and Chouchou Merzak Allouache 2003 Alongside this commercial strand a series of small budget alternative comedies and other genre films have also challenged heteronormative conceptualizations of sexuality and gender. Films such as Sitcom Français (Ozon, 1998), L'Homme est une femme comme les autres (Jean-Jacques Zilbermann, 1997), Pourquoi pas moi (Stéphane Giusti, 1999), Drôle de Félix (Olivier Ducastel and Jacques Martineau, 2000), and Les Chansons d'amour (Christophe Honoré, 2007) portray desire as fluid and/or gender as unfixed. With their use of parody and their blending of comedy with the musical, melodrama, romance, or road movie, these and other similar films have resonated with a burgeoning viewing public tired of having to seek queerness in connotation of appropriating marginal characters in ostensibly straight narratives and of tragedy and trauma as the principal modes of representation and spectator address.
