Archaeology of a Brothel in Nineteenth-Century Boston, MA Jade W. Luiz, 2022-12-30

Archaeology of a Brothel in Nineteenth Century Boston MA provides an accessible and thought provoking account of the archaeological understanding of nineteenth century prostitution in Boston Massachusetts. The book explores how the practice of nineteenth century sex work involved a careful construction of fantasy for brothel customers. This fantasy had the potential to provide financial stability and security for the madam of the establishment if not for the women working for them. Employing theories of embodiment sexuality and an archaeology of the senses this study of the Endicott Street collection contributes a new methodological and theoretical framework for studying the archaeology of prostitution across time space and culture. The material culture recovered from brothel sites allows exploration of both the semi private behind the scenes narrative of sex work as well as the semi public eroticised performance space where patrons were entertained. Few books on the archaeology of sex work exist and this volume will both provide an updated perspective on the history of sex work in Boston in the nineteenth century as well as tie advances in gender and embodiment theories to a compelling case study The book is for students and scholars of historical archaeology nineteenth century urban America and gender studies Students studying feminist theory and archaeology of the senses will also be interested in the contents Boston Directory ,1922 Gazetteer of Berkshire County, Mass., 1725-1885 ,1885 Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,2004 Gould's Commercial Register (business Directory) of the City of St. Louis ,1900 Boston Register and Business Directory ,1918
