Must We Suffer Our Way To Death:

Growing Old in Christ Stanley Hauerwas, 2003-06-20 One of the hallmarks of contemporary culture is its attitude toward aging and the elderly Youth and productivity are celebrated in today's society while the elderly are increasingly marginalized This not only poses difficulties for old people but is also a loss for the young and middle agers who could learn much from the elderly including what it means to grow old and die in Christ Growing Old in Christ presents the first serious theological reflection ever on what it means to grow old particularly in our culture and particularly as a Christian In a full orb ed discussion of the subject eighteen first rate Christian thinkers survey biblical and historical perspectives on aging look at aging in the modern world and describe the Christian practice of growing old Along the way they address many timely issues including the medicalization of aging the debate over physician assisted suicide and the importance of friendships both among the elderly and between the elderly and the young Weighty enough to instruct theologians ethicists and professional caregivers yet accessible enough for pastors and general readers this book will benefit anyone seeking faith based insight into growing old Contributors David Aers David Cloutier Rowan A Greer Stanley Hauerwas Judith C Hays Richard B Hays Shaun C Henson L Gregory Jones Susan Pendleton Jones Patricia Beattie Jung D Stephen Long M Therese Lysaught David Matzko McCarthy Keith G Meador Charles Pinches Joel James Shuman Carole Bailey Stoneking Laura Yordy Law at the End of Life Carl Schneider, 2000 Discusses the issues surrounding physician assisted suicide in light of the Supreme Court's recent decision Regulating how We Die Linda L. Emanuel, 1998 Addressing the subject of euthanasia medical ethicist Dr Linda Emanuel assembles testimony from leading experts to provide not only a clear account of the arguments for and against physician assisted suicide and euthanasia but also historical empirical and legal perspectives on this complex and often heart rending issue Where Is God When We Suffer? Lynn Gardner, 2007 Why I Burned My Book and Other Essays on Disability Paul K. Longmore, 2003 Personal inclination made me a historian Personal encounter with public policy made me an activist On Moral Medicine Stephen E. Lammers, Allen Verhey, 1998-05-11 Collecting a wide range of contemporary and classical essays dealing with medical ethics this huge volume is the finest resource available for engaging the pressing problems posed by medical advances Patience, Compassion, Hope, and the Christian Art of Dying Well Christopher P. Vogt, 2004 By mining the rich tradition of virtue ethics Christopher Vogt uses the virtues of patience compassion and hope as a framework for specifying the shape of a good death and for naming the practices Christians should develop to live well and die well Bringing together historical biblical and contemporary sources in Christian ethics Vogt provides a long overdue theological analysis of the ars moriendi or art of dying literature of four centuries ago Through a careful analysis of Luke's passion narrative Vogt uses Jesus as the primary model for being patient in the face of death and for dying well Methods in Medical Ethics Jeremy Sugarman, Daniel P. Sulmasy, 2001 Twenty four American specialists provide descriptions of techniques critiques and notes on resources and training on a variety of methods used in medical ethics Individual chapters are devoted to each of 11 methods philosophy religion and theology professional codes legal methods casuistry history qualitative ethnographic quantitative surveys experimental methods and economics and decision science Discussion includes how these methods can relate to one another and how to assess the quality of scholarship in medical ethics in connection with such issues as physician assisted suicide euthanasia and medical genetics For scholars teachers editors and students in all disciplines contributing to the field c Book News Inc Dying and the Virtues Matthew Levering,2018-01-23 In this rich book Matthew Levering explores nine key virtues that we need to die and live well love hope faith penitence gratitude solidarity humility surrender and courage Retrieving and engaging a variety of biblical theological historical and medical resources Levering journeys through the various stages and challenges of the dying process beginning with the fear of annihilation and continuing through repentance and gratitude suffering and hope before arriving finally at the courage needed to say goodbye to one s familiar world Grounded in careful readings of Scripture the theological tradition and contemporary culture Dying and the Virtues comprehensively and beautifully shows how these nine virtues effectively unite us with God the One who alone can conquer death Partnership with the Dying David H. Smith,2005 What do physicians nurses chaplains and social workers think about moral and religious issues in care for the dying These professionals live with death including many untimely and difficult deaths on a daily basis Based on intensive interviews with a cross sample of health care professionals David H Smith details how the churches could not only be supportive of these primary caregivers in dealing with end of life issues but how they could enlist their help in informing their own congregations about the realities of death To care for the dying is spiritually demanding work Churches should not let health professionals struggle with religious issues whether of patients families or their own in isolation Smith s respondents offer powerful perspectives on the issue of physician assisted suicide Religious and theological ethics cannot afford to ignore insights and questions that come from those who deal with dying every day Finding meaning in the face of human suffering comes less from doctrine than from living a certain kind of life This book is a clarion call for new practical and vital forms of education support and commitment particularly within the churches in the cause of improving care for the dying s from doctrine than from living a certain kind of life This book is a clarion call for new practical and vital forms of education support and commitment particularly within the churches in the cause of improving care for the dying s from doctrine than from living a certain kind of life This book is a clarion call for new practical and vital forms of education support and commitment particularly within the churches in the cause of improving care for the dying s from doctrine than from living a certain kind of life This book is a clarion call for new practical and vital forms of education support and commitment particularly within the churches in the cause of improving care for the dying Suffering and the Heart of God Diane Langberg,2015-09-01 Do trauma and abuse have the last word After forty years of counseling abuse survivors around the world Dr Diane Langberg a world renowned trauma expert remains certain that what trauma destroys Christ can and does restore Euthanasia

Jennifer Fecio McDougall, Martha Gorman, 2007-11-20 This timely work is a balanced overview of end of life issues related to euthanasia and assisted suicide Except for the Oregon Death with Dignity Act there are no U S laws that allow physicians to assist patients in hastening death Many who support physician assisted suicide ask Why not After all the Netherlands permits both euthanasia and physician assisted suicide and polls suggest that many Americans want that choice available to them Euthanasia A Reference Handbook Second Edition explores that question through a balanced thoughtful discussion of the legal medical and spiritual components of end of life questions What are the potential pitfalls of legalizing assisted suicide How can the expenses of a lingering death impact an uninsured family How would physician assisted suicide impact healthcare costs Through its objective exploration of these issues as well as its historical and international perspective this volume helps readers answer the difficult questions related to the end of life Coping with Choices to Die C. G.

Prado, 2010-11-01 This book examines the reactions of the friends and family of those who elect to die due to terminal illness These surviving spouses partners relatives and friends in addition to coping with the death of a loved one must also deal with the loved one's decision to die thus severing the relationship C G Prado examines how reactions to elective death are influenced by cultural influences and beliefs particularly those related to life death and the possibility of an afterlife Understanding the role of these cultural influences on the grieving processes of survivors is a crucial step in allowing them to accept both intellectually and emotionally the finality of elective death and to deal with the decision of their loved one

Facing Death Howard Marget Spiro, Mary G. McCrea Curnen, Lee Palmer Wandel, 1998-10-01 While technology for keeping death at bay has advanced greatly people are less well informed about how to face death and how to understand or articulate the emotional or spiritual need of the dying This work aims to help medical personnel and patients to view death as a defining part of life

My Catholic Faith! John Paul Thomas, My Catholic Life!, 2015-03-03 With Nihil Obstat Imprimatur Common to people of every time and place is a longing for the truth We want to know We want to know the purpose of our life why we are here on earth where we came from whether there is a God who this God is whether there is an afterlife and so much more These most basic and fundamental questions are hopefully in the forefront of our minds And if they are not it s never too late to start This book offers some of the answers to these questions It offers the answers found in our Creed At first the Creed can seem dry and unimpressive It can even seem confusing and overly academic But when properly understood the Creed holds the answer to the questions we so deeply seek So dig into the faith we have been given and let God s revelation change your life About this Series The My Catholic Life series is a three volume series written as a complete summary of our glorious Catholic faith The goal of these books is to answer the difficult and deep questions of life in a clear and understandable way We need to know who we are and what life is all about And we need to know who God is and what He has spoke to us through the ages This volume Volume One My Catholic Faith is a summary of the Apostles and Nicene Creed This volume looks at everything from the creation of the world to God s eternal plan of salvation Other topics include Afterlife saints God faith and the Church It is a summary of the teaching of the Catechism of the Catholic Church 1 1065 Volume Two My Catholic Worship is a summary of the life of grace found in prayer and the Sacraments So often the Sacraments can be seen as dry and empty rituals But they are in reality the greatest treasures we have They are God's true presence among us It is a summary of the Catechism of the Catholic Church 1066 1684 and 2558 2865 Volume Three My Catholic Morals is a summary of the morality itself knowing how we choose right from wrong as well as a summary of all the moral teachings of our faith It is a summary of the Catechism of the Catholic Church 1691 2557 Nihil Obstat Imprimatur granted for three volume series Suffering, Death, and Identity, 2021-11-08 This book explores many of the issues that arise when we consider persons who are in pain who are suffering and who are nearing the end of life Suffering provokes us into a journey toward discovering who we are and forces us to rethink many of the views we hold about ourselves God Turned Toward Us William H. Willimon, 2021-10-05 Talk the talk and walk the walk The challenge of the Christian life is learning to talk Christian Somebody has got to tell us give us the words that open the door to the faith called Christian Each of us is due the delight of discovery that in submitting to God's talk to us God Turned Toward Us The ABCs of Christian Faith is organized by the words the church teaches us to use to talk about ordinary life apprehended by a God who is Jesus Christ short meditative reflections upon key concepts that guide Christians new or longstanding Praise for God Turned Towards Us Reading God Turned Towards Us is like walking through a diamond mine The opening segment on Abortion is itself worth the price of the book Consider these gems On the Cross The cross is a mirror that reflects who we really are as well as a window where we are given a privileged look into the heart of who God is On Sanctification The Gospels depict the disciples on a continual road trip They journey not only step by step closer to Jerusalem but also day by day closer to Christ that is sanctification Mike Lowry Resident Bishop of the Central Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church God Turned Toward Us The ABCs of Christian Faith is no ordinary book about Christian beliefs and practices Rather it is a sometimes jarring always interesting consistently insightful and persistently provocative invitation to talk the talk and walk the walk of Christian discipleship Addressing topics from A Abortion to Z Zaccheus Bishop Willimon prods us to listen more attentively to the God who continues to speak amid the confusion and turmoil of our times This is a valuable resource for individuals and groups who genuinely want to hear a word from the Lord Kenneth Carder Retired Bishop of The United Methodist Church
