Oodgeroo A Tribute:

Oodgeroo Adam Shoemaker, 1994 Including photographs and bibliographical guide this is a collection of essays and reminiscences by friends scholars and artists who give their views on the late Oodgeroo her poetry and activism A Cultural History of Sound, Memory, and the Senses Joy Damousi, Paula Hamilton, 2016-12-08 The past 20 years have witnessed a turn towards the sensuous particularly the aural as a viable space for critical exploration in History and other Humanities disciplines This has been informed by a heightened awareness of the role that the senses play in shaping modern identity and understanding of place and increasingly how the senses are central to the memory of past experiences and their representation The result has been a broadening of our historical imagination which has previously taken the visual for granted and ignored the other senses Considering how crucial the auditory aspect of life has been a shift from seeing to hearing past societies offers a further perspective for examining the complexity of historical events and experiences Historians in many fields have begun to listen to the past developing new arguments about the history and the memory of sensory experience This volume builds on scholarship produced over the last twenty years and explores these dimensions by coupling the history of sound and the senses in distinctive ways through a study of the sound of violence the sound of voice mediated by technologies and the expression of memory through the senses Though sound is the most developed field in the study of the sensorium many argue that each of the senses should not be studied in isolation from each other and for this reason the final section incorporates material which emphasizes the sense as relational Intersemiotic Perspectives on Emotions Susan Petrilli, Meng Ji, 2022-07-29 This edited volume explores emotion and its translations through the global world from a variety of different perspectives as a personal socio cultural ideological ethical and political even business investment in the latest phases of globalisation Emotions are powerful in engaging or disengaging individuals communities the masses peoples and nations with distinct linguistic and cultural backgrounds for good but also for evil All depends on how emotions are interpreted that is translated in words or in facts in any case in signs Semiotic reflection on emotions and their interpretation translation is thus of essential importance An adequate understanding of emotional phenomena and their complexities calls for different views which together reveal and illustrate inconsistencies in our modern life The contributors argue that an investigation of types of emotional translation linguistic and non linguistic audio visual theatrical literary racial legal architectural political and so forth can contribute to a better understanding of emotions and how they are exploited to engender injustice unfairness absurdity in contemporary life Nonetheless emotions are also exploited and oriented and this is the intent of our authors to favour the development of sustainable multicultural societies and facilitate living together A major reference for students and scholars in translation semiotics language and cultural studies around the world

Feminist Poetics of the Sacred Frances Devlin-Glass, Lyn McCredde, 2001 This is a multicultural study of ancient contemporary texts that encode women s spirituality It includes both contemporary historical contexts tracing the roles actions beliefs of women in pre Christian Christian Islamic contexts Literary Activists ,2009-09 Uniquely examining the link between Australian writers and social change this study investigates the motives behind literary figures who strive to become activists and social intellectuals Exploring this intimate connection this resource asks what such a bond reveals about Australian literature and the power of the written word With fresh insight this guide delves into the activism careers and writings of Judith Wright Patrick White Oodgeroo of the tribe of Noonuccal Les Murray Helen Garner David Malouf and Tim Winton The Circle & the Spiral Eva Rask Knudsen,2021-11-01 In Aboriginal and M ori literature the circle and the spiral are the symbolic metaphors for a never ending journey of discovery and rediscovery The journey itself with its indigenous perspectives and sense of orientation is the most significant act of cultural recuperation The present study outlines the fields of indigenous writing in Australia and New Zealand in the crucial period between the mid 1980s and the early 1990s particularly eventful years in which postcolonial theory attempted to centre the margins and indigenous writers were keen to escape the particular centering offered in search of other positions more in tune with their creative sensibilities Indigenous writing relinquished its narrative preference for social realism in favour of traversing old territory in new spiritual ways roots converted into routes Standard postcolonial readings of indigenous texts often overwrite the difference they seek to locate because critical orthodoxy predetermines what difference can be Critical evaluations still tend to eclipse the ontological grounds of Aboriginal and M ori traditions and specific ways of moving through and behaving in cultural landscapes and social contexts Hence the corrective applied in Circles and Spirals to look for locally and culturally specific tracks and traces that lead in other directions than those catalogued by postcolonial convention This agenda is pursued by means of searching enquiries into the historical anthropological political and cultural determinants of the present state of Aboriginal and M ori writing principally fiction Independent yet interrelated exemplary analyses of works by Keri Hulme and Patricia Grace and Mudrooroo and Sam Watson Australia provided the thick description that illuminates the author s central theses with comparative side glances at Witi Ihimaera Heretaunga Pat Baker and Alan Duff New Zealand and Archie Weller and Sally Morgan Australia Anthology of Australian Aboriginal Literature Anita Heiss,Peter Minter,2014-11-30 In a political system that renders them largely voiceless Australia s Aboriginal people have used the written word as a powerful tool for over two hundred years Anthology of Australian Aboriginal Literature presents a rich panorama of Aboriginal culture history and life through the writings of some of the great Australian Aboriginal authors From Bennelong s 1796 letter to contemporary writing Anita Heiss and Peter Minter have selected works that represent the range and depth of Aboriginal writing in English Journalism petitions and political letters from both the nineteenth and twentieth centuries are brought together with major works of poetry prose and drama from the mid twentieth century onward These works voice not only the ongoing suffering of dispossession but the resilience of Australia s Aboriginal people their hope and joy Presenting some of the best most distinctive writing produced in Australia this groundbreaking anthology will captivate anyone interested in
