their attempts to grapple with the intellectual dilemma of their times as represented by the East West encounter The three men possessed considerable scholarship and erudition and came from the same social milieu of upper class urban Bengal yet each had very different perceptions of the West The nineteenth century Bengali experience under colonialism was part of a global phenomenon inasmuch as the province like many other areas of Asia was subject to European imperialism Bengal was thus perhaps the earliest manifestation of the revolution in the mental world of Asia s elite groups Nearer home it represented the general experience of the Indian subcontinent as a whole but at its most complex and well informed level These changing perceptions and attitudes mediated all new initiatives in the society and polity of Asian peoples in modern times The changes in their turn were crucially influenced by perceptions of Europe The author explores the ideas regarding Europe as presented in the writings of these three very influential writers who represented as well as shaped widely held opinions The book touches on orientalism hermeneutics cultural contact between Europe and Asia European expansion the nineteenth century Renaissance in India and the colonial middle classes in Asia It is a significant addition to the meagre literature available on Indian perceptions of the West In his new introduction to this new edition the author links the book to the wider themes in his current research he also explains points in his argument which he feels have been misunderstood Appended to this edition is a memorial lecture by the author in honour of his teacher Susobhan Sarkar which reassesses the concept of the Bengal Renaissance
