Services Marketing

Introduction

- The strong growth of the services sector over the past few decades in many ways has been the result of external macro-environmental forces.
 - Economic changes
 - Social changes
 - Technological advances
- Services now account for the major share of total economic activity in developed economies.
- The services sector provides the most jobs, by far, of all sectors of the economies of developed countries.

Service dominant economies

- Service industries generate about 70% of the national incomes of Australia and NZ.
- Private-sector organisations in Australia and NZ are the primary providers of services including retail, property and construction, with the government sector being a major provider in defence, health, education and welfare.
- The most rapidly growing service industries are communications, education and health.
- The finance, tourism and hospitality industries can be quite volatile.

'Service outputs' and 'service'

- Services are, distinguished from goods — services are not 'things'; rather, they are deeds, activities or performances.
- Service is the activity, deed or performance that delivers value.
- Service outputs involved in the distribution of a good.
- Marketers need to be concerned with offering a competitive range of services and ensuring those services are delivered with the highest standards of customer service.

Service product classification

- Consumer services are those services purchased by individual consumers or households for their own private consumption.
- Business-to-business services (or professional services) are those services purchased by individuals and organisations for use in the production of other products or for use in their daily business operations.

Space Marketing W. Peeters, 2001-11-30 Space activities are currently in a transitional phase the shift from publicly financed to private activities is a result of reduced public funding and increased commercial space opportunities This leads to an increased commercial space marketing mix and marketing management A classical 4Ps approach is proposed covering the Product Price Physical distribution and Promotion of space activities Special emphasis is placed on technology transfer spin off and intellectual property aspects as well as on aspects of space economy such as alternate financing schemes like PPP Public Private Partnership and sponsoring However space activists require broad public support and the exploratory aspect of space activities the Space Frontier dimensions should not be ignored For this reason the philosophical dimension as an integral part of the marketing mix is elaborated in detail The approach is illustrated with two case studies commercialisation of the International Space Station ISS and the emerging Space Tourism market
