Serving Time:

Serving Time Great Britain: National Audit Office, 2006-03-09 Significant improvements have been made in HM Prison Service's catering arrangements resulting in financial savings and improved quality of service Since 2003/04 savings of some 2.5 million have been made each year from expenditure on food and some 1.7 million a year on catering staff mainly through civilianisation of catering staff posts Other savings have arisen from more efficient procurement and reduced stockholdings of food In addition most prisoners are offered full and varied programmes of physical education activities Also Serving

Time Rosemary Ricciardelli, 2019-10-25 Also Serving Time informs readers about the realities of provincial and territorial prison work in Canada Exploring the nuances of the job Rosemary Ricciardelli shows how officer orientations and attitudes toward prisoners are interconnected and foundational in shaping their prison experiences as well as that of those in custody and in managerial and administrative positions Drawing on interviews with 100 correctional officers from a range of provincial prisons and with experience working in territorial prisons Ricciardelli provides theoretical and applied explorations of officer orientations interpretations and risk propensity to show how perceptions attitudes and beliefs both at the individual and structural levels shape prison practices Also Serving Time unpacks how gender informs the actions and self presentation of correctional officers and informs readers about the officers experiences when working with male and female adult prison populations Ricciardelli confirms that tasks of daily living underpinned by pervasive risk potential shape prison work Through the officer accounts presented she provides an opportunity for readers to explore how punishment and rehabilitation gender and the hierarchical structure of prison management shape officers daily realities Serving Time Too

Rosalind Boone Williams, 2019-05-29 Serving Time Too A Memoir of My Son's Prison Years is the universally accessible story of a mother and son what she knew about him what she will never understand how she helped him and when she needed to let him go But Rosalind Williams memoir is unique because her unconditional love for Marell persisted after his conviction for murder During his sixteen years in prison and for two and a half years after his release every aspect of Rosalind's life was affected by her fidelity to him and by the failures of a penal system tinged with racial and class inequities Rosalind tells a personal story with enormous significance to society She is an unflinchingly fair sometimes self critical narrator who reflects upon the enticements of violence and crime especially for African American young men despite the values they are taught at home Her experiences demonstrate the damage that crime and punishment inflict upon those good people who stand by loved ones during and after incarceration This memoir will comfort anyone related to the 2.3 million people behind bars in the United States Others will hear a call to reform and more importantly they will feel compassion for the offender's family and the offender No other book in print takes Rosalind's perspective on the problems of crime and incarceration Serving

Productive Time Tom Lagana, Laura Lagana, 2009-07 Are you or have you ever been incarcerated Do you have a loved one in jail or prison Do you work or volunteer at a correctional facility Have you ever been the victim of a crime Do you understand that we all share the responsibility of helping others no matter who they are where they live or what they have done If so you understand that incarceration affects everyone and that only through positive change can people begin to heal and grow In Serving Productive Time you ll read about extraordinary people who are taking tangible steps to make positive changes in their own lives and who are reaching out to help others do the same Some stories will help you gain a new perspective on those who are incarcerated Some will help you understand the need to prepare inmates for release and to support them afterward Others will help you appreciate your freedom and remind you that we all make mistakes And still others will reaffirm the fact that although many of us might be imprisoned in some way either by a limiting belief illness or other situation we all need a helping hand at some point in our lives to lift us up and show us the path to a new life Serving Productive Time will leave you with a renewed appreciation of the need for all of us to use our time wisely to make ongoing positive changes in our lives and to bring others along with us in the process whether we live or work inside or outside the razor wire

The Female Offender Meda Chesney-Lind, Lisa Pasko, 2012-02-28 Scholarship in criminology over the last few decades has often left little room for research and theory on how female offenders are perceived and handled in the criminal justice system In truth one out of every four juveniles arrested is female and the population of women in prison has tripled in the past decade Co authored by Meda Chesney Lind one of the pioneers in the development of the feminist theoretical perspective in criminology the subject matter of The Female Offender Girls Women and Crime Third Edition redresses the balance by providing critical insight into these issues In an engaging style authors Meda Chesney Lind and Lisa Pasko explore gender and cultural factors in women s lives that often precede criminal behavior and address the question of whether female offenders are more violent today than in the past The authors provide a revealing look at how public discomfort with the idea of women as criminals significantly impacts the treatment received by this offender population
