Settlements, Trade, and Politics in the Seventeenth-century Gold Coast Ray A. Kea, 1982      Settlements, Trade and Politics in the Seventeenth-Century Gold Coast Ray A. Kea, 2005      Lose Your Mother Saidiya Hartman, 2008-01-22 An original thought provoking meditation on the corrosive legacy of slavery from the 16th century to the present Elizabeth Schmidt The New York Times      An Archaeology of the English Atlantic World, 1600 - 1700 Charles E. Orser, Jr., 2018-07-05 An Archaeology of the British Atlantic World 1600 1700 is the first book to apply the methods of modern world archaeology to the study of the seventeenth century English colonial world Charles E Orser Jr explores a range of material evidence of daily life collected from archaeological excavations throughout the Atlantic region including England Ireland western Africa Native North America and the eastern United States He considers the archaeological record together with primary texts by contemporary writers Giving particular attention to housing fortifications delftware and stoneware Orser offers new interpretations for each type of artefact His study demonstrates how the archaeological record expands our understanding of the Atlantic world at a critical moment of its expansion as well as to the development of the modern Western world      Credit, Currencies, and Culture Endre Stiansen, Jane I. Guyer, 1999 A striking feature of African history is the volume of commerce and production that has been possible without the full panoply of credit insurances future markets stock companies limited liability and other legal and financial services that make up the formal sector of modern economies The contributions to this volume investigate institutional nexuses through which money has been managed in Africa Together they present important perspectives that are needed to understand the present economic crisis on the continent      From Slavery to Emancipation in the Atlantic World Sylvia R. Frey, Betty Wood, 1999 This collection examines the effects of slavery and emancipation on race class and gender in societies of the American South the Caribbean Latin America and West Africa The contributors discuss what slavery has to teach us about patterns of adjustment and change black identity and the extent to which enslaved peoples succeeded in creating a dynamic world of interaction between the Americas They examine how emancipation was defined how it affected attitudes towards slavery patterns of labour usage and relationships between workers as well as between workers and their former owners      Wounds of Our Past Emmanuel Saboro, 2022-04-11 Emmanuel Saboro's study on memories of the slave era in northern Ghana is a most welcome addition to a long and storied scholarly tradition examining song lyrics associated with the institution of slavery As one might expect the vast majority of such studies focus on the music traditions of the enslaved in North America Collected between the mid 19th and early 20th century historians musicologist and literary scholars have systematically analyzed these songs for what the lyrics can tell us about experiences during the era of slavery and the slave trade Similar works that focus on West Africa however are rare indeed Like his North American counterparts Saboro examines the songs of northern Ghana as coded messages that express hope comfort resistance rage and triumph over adversity Having no fixed meanings Saboro describes them as both flexible and greatly useful for conveying a variety of meanings      Africans Into Creoles Russell Lohse, 2014-09 Unlike most books on slavery in the Americas this social history of Africans and their enslaved descendants in colonial Costa Rica recounts the journey of specific people from West Africa to the New World Tracing the experiences of Africans on two Danish slave ships that arrived in Costa Rica in 1710 the Christianus Quintus and Fredericus Quartus the author examines slavery in Costa Rica from 1600 to 1750 Lohse looks at the ethnic origins of the Africans and narrates their capture and transport to the coast their embarkation and passage and finally their acculturation to slavery and their lives as slaves in Costa Rica Following the experiences of girls and boys women and men he shows how the conditions of slavery in a unique local setting determined the constraints that slaves faced and how they responded to their condition      General History of Africa UNESCO International Committee for the New Volumes of the General History of Africa, 2025-10-18      In a Sea of Empires Jeppe Mulich, 2020-07-09 At the turn of the nineteenth century the Caribbean was rife with revolutionary fervor and political turmoil Yet with such upheaval came unparalleled opportunities In this innovative and richly detailed study Jeppe Mulich explores the interconnected nature of imperial politics and colonial law in the maritime borderlands of the Leeward Islands where British Danish Dutch French Spanish and Swedish colonies both competed and cooperated with one another By exploring the transnational networks involved in trade slavery smuggling privateering and marronage he offers a new account of the age of revolutions in the Caribbean emphasizing the border crossing nature of life in the region By approaching major shifts in politics economy and law from the bottom up a new story of early nineteenth century globalization emerges one that emphasizes regional integration and a multiplicity of intersecting networks
