Human/Animal Amie Souza Reilly,2025-04-29 Amie Souza Reilly bought an old house in the suburbs She had just gotten remarried and was looking forward to a new start with her new husband and her six year old son But immediately after moving in the next door neighbors began a crusade to push them out The two brothers followed her peered in her windows stood in her yard trapped her inside her car As they broke boundary after suburban boundary she found herself implicated in their violence Human Animal merges personal narrative and cultural criticism to unleash the complicated relationship between instinct and action violence and regret This bestiary in essays wrestles American colonialism horror films feminism and gender studies to confront the intrusive neighbors the author could not Ultimately this book asks larger questions about proximity care and the line between human and animal Illustrated with the author's own sketches Human Animal A Bestiary in Essays grapples not only with Reilly's place in her neighborhood but with America's past and current political climate

Erasing Frankenstein Elizabeth Effinger, 2024-07-23 Who gets to write poetry Whose voices are made public Whose voices are heeded Erasing Frankenstein showcases a creative exchange between federally incarcerated women and members of the prison education think tank Walls to Bridges Collective at the Grand Valley Institution for Women in Kitchener Ontario and graduate and undergraduate students from the University of New Brunswick in Fredericton Working collaboratively by long distance mail the artists and contributors made the first ever poetic adaptation of Frankenstein turning it into a book length erasure poem I or Us An example of found art an erasure poem is created by erasing or blacking out words in an existing text what is left is the poem The title reflects the nature of the project participants have worked as I's each creating their own erased pages but together worked as an us to create a collaged monster of a book Erasing Frankenstein presents the original erasure poem I or Us alongside reflections from participants on the experience Dead Woman Pickney Yvonne Shorter Brown, 2022-04-01 Dead Woman Pickney chronicles Yvonne Shorter Brown's life growing up in Jamaica between 1943 and 1965 and teaching in Canada from 1969 Told with stridency and humour the stories include both personal experience and history Taking up the haunting memories of childhood along with persistent racial marginalization of Black people both globally and in Canada the author sets out to construct a narrative that at once explains her own origins in the former slave society of Jamaica and traces the outsider status of Africa and its peoples The author's quest to understand the absence of her mother and her mother's people from her life is at the heart of the narrative The author struggles through life to discover the identity of her mother in the face of silence from her father's brutal family In this updated edition she adds a coda finding mother constructed from archives genealogy letters and journals Initially published in 2010 this second edition includes expanded text and a foreword by Sonja Boon author of What the Oceans Remember Not the Whole Story Lea Caragata, Judit Alcalde, 2014-04-18 Not the Whole Story is a compilation of sixteen stories narrated by single mothers in their own way and about their own lives Each story is unique but the same issues appear again and again Abuse parenting as single mothers challenges in the labour market mental health and addictions issues a scarcity of quality childcare immigration and status vulnerability struggles with custody and poverty these factors combined with a lack of support contribute to their continued struggles The themes that recur across stories illustrate that the issues the women face are not just about individual struggle they demonstrate that major issues in Canada's social system have been neglected in public policy In order for these issues to be addressed we need to challenge the flawed public policies and the negative discourse that continue to marginalize single mothers in terms of the opportunities in their own lives and in terms of how they are understood by other Canadians The first person narratives of the struggles and issues faced by low income single mothers provide narrative richness and are augmented by introductory and concluding chapters that draw the narrative themes together and offer overarching discussion and analysis Scratching River Michelle Porter,2022-04-15 Scratching River braids the voices of mother brother sister ancestor and river to create a story about environmental personal and collective healing This memoir revolves around a search for home for the author s older brother who is both autistic and schizophrenic and an unexpected emotional journey that led to acceptance understanding and ultimately reconciliation Michelle Porter brings together the oral history of a M tis ancestor studies of river morphology and news clippings about abuse her older brother endured at a rural Alberta group home to tell a tale about love survival and hope This book is a voice in your ear urging you to explore your own braided histories and relationships Just a Larger Family Mary F. Williamson,Tom Sharp,2011-05-15 The Second World War had been under way for a year when Marie and John Williamson welcomed two English brothers to join them and their two children in their small house in north Toronto for the duration of the conflict Marie wrote over 150 letters to the boys mother Margaret Sharp imagining that she could make Margaret feel she was still with her children She shepherded the boys through education decisions and illnesses eased them into a strange new life and rejoiced when they embraced unfamiliar winter sports The letters brim with detail about family holidays the financial implications of an extended family their involvement in their church and the games and activities that kept them occupied Marie s letters reflect the lives and concerns of a particular family in Toronto but they also reveal a portrait of what was then Canada s second largest city during wartime The introduction is by Mary F Williamson Marie s daughter and Tom Sharp Margaret s youngest son The book features a foreword by Jonathan Vance that puts the letters in historical context

Travels and Identities Peter E. Paul Dembski,2017-01-05 Elizabeth Smith Shortt was one of the first three women to obtain a medical degree in Canada and her husband Adam Shortt enjoyed a successful career as a professor of politics and economics at Queen s University in Kingston In 1908 Adam Shortt relocated his family to Ottawa to take up a commission to oversee civil service reform under Prime Minister Wilfrid Laurier There he convinced his superiors that an onsite investigation of four European countries would expedite his effort to improve Canada s bureaucracy and in June 1911 he and Elizabeth embarked on their trip This book chronicles their Atlantic crossing and extended visit to England as well as trips to Switzerland Austria Germany and the Netherlands The Shortts were generally pleased with England and its values but Elizabeth was sharply critical of the behaviour of British nurses Her diaries and letters here reprinted critiqued the lands and peoples she visited in Europe Leading foreign feminists such as Lady Chichester and Mrs Maud of the Mothers Union in England sought her advice as did Alice Salomon in Germany the corresponding secretary of the International Council of Women The diaries and letters presented in this volume reveal the multifaceted nature of Adam and Elizabeth Shortt from public figures to difficult employers to a couple who couldn't help but live beyond their means Peter E Paul Dembski's introduction paints a picture of a couple who lived as moderate liberals with occasional conservative or radical views and who blended science and an adherence to Protestant Christianity into their thinking Their travel experiences during a period of building political upheaval provide a valuable snapshot of pre First World War European society and culture
