Women's Poetry, 1600-1730 Gillian Wright,2013-04-18 Producing Women's Poetry is the first specialist study to consider English language poetry by women across the seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries Gillian Wright explores not only the forms and topics favoured by women but also how their verse was enabled and shaped by their textual and biographical circumstances She combines traditional literary and bibliographical approaches to address women's complex use of manuscript and print and their relationships with the male generated genres of the traditional literary canon as well as the role of agents such as scribes publishers and editors in helping to determine how women's poetry was preserved circulated and remembered Wright focuses on key figures in the emerging canon of early modern women's writing Anne Bradstreet Katherine Philips and Anne Finch alongside the work of lesser known poets Anne Southwell and Mary Monck to create a new and compelling account of early modern women's literary history From Somewhere to Here Stephen

Scorer,2018-09-24 From somewhere to here is a collection of my second 50 poems my writing journey started after I became redundant from my job as a post person in March 2016 There is a wide range of topics that I have tried to cover these still include some sports poems and some on mental health but I have started to branch out and put a pen to paper whenever the urge strikes When I decided on making my own poetry book to which I mean from writing printing then putting it all together to make a small collection I also thought after reading so many different types of poetry books Just like taking life's many routes and paths so will my poetry books and if you are mad enough to become a fan you will take on my journeys This collection starts where my first collection finished so from May 2017 to October 2017 I managed to write these fifty poems If you were mad enough to follow my poetic journey the first fifty took me over a year to put together whilst this second fifty took half the time The Power of Numbers Schrödinger,Stilovsky,2019-10-09 In today's world the use of numbers grows by the day and we depend on them for so much This book contains a series of lists that contain information about numbers and their use in society They will be most useful to those with a quizzical nature but should be of general interest to all Schrödinger's cat was an infamous and cruel thought experiment dreamt up in the last century to expose one of the mistaken ideas current in science at that time Since escaping from the box Felix has taken up writing and in collaboration with retired water engineer Pyotr Stilovsky he has compiled this factual compendium Whitman Edgar Lee Masters,1968 The Poems of

Bishop Henry King Henry King,1925 The Life and Work of Adelaide Procter Gill Gregory,2019-01-04 First published in 1998 this volume follows the life and work of Adelaide Procter 1825-1864 one of the most important 19th century women poets to be reassessed by literary critics in recent years She was a significant figure in the Victorian literary landscape A poet who outsold most writers bar Tennyson a philanthropist and Roman Catholic convert Procter committed herself to the cause of single fallen and homeless women She was a key member of the Langham Place Circle of campaigning women and worked tirelessly for the society for Promoting the Employment of Women Many of her poems are concerned with anonymous and displaced women who struggle to secure an identity and place in the world She also writes boldly and unconventionally of women s sexual desires Loved and admired by her father the poet Bryan Procter her editor Charles Dickens and her friend W M Thackeray Procter wrote from the heart of London literary circles From this position she mounted a subtle and creative critique of the ideas and often gendered positions adopted by male predecessors and contemporaries such as John Keble Robert Browning and Dickens himself Gill Gregory s The Life and Work of Adelaide Procter Poetry Feminism and Fathers considers the career of this compelling and remarkable woman and discusses the extent to which she struggled to find her own voice in response to the works of some seminal literary fathers
