

SEWING

How do you add character, style, and interest to your home without expensive redecorating? Easily and affordably, with room-enhancing accessories you can make yourself. And here's a whole slew of them—pillows, in a variety of shapes and sizes, both functional and beautiful. The basic sewing techniques are simple and cover mitering corners, closures, piping, cording, decorative flanges, and fringes, as well as surface design and ribbon work. Projects range from heirloom pillows to unique pillow shapes. Full-color photos show all the finished projects, while close-ups take you through every single stitch, and imaginative tips tell you how to get all kinds of different looks by varying fabrics, colors, trims, and shapes.
