But by the age of thirty he had become a drug addict a thief and after a DEA drug bust a convicted drug dealer sentenced to five years in prison with another five years added while he was incarcerated Through supreme willpower a belief in himself and a steely desire to alter his life s path Douglas began to reverse his trajectory to understand and deal with the psychological turmoil that tormented him for years and to prepare for what would be a profoundly challenging but successful reentry into society at large

The Long Way Home Odell Richardson Jr.,2009-11 The Long Way Home The Testimony is a first of its kind from the inner city streets of Baltimore Maryland This narrative non fiction story is NOT a glorification of the despair that plagues many urban districts throughout our country but it is an informative intense detailed urban centerpiece that goes against conventional wisdom of what society may believe about the inner city and many of its occupants This story bridges a gap many believed could not be It s a unique approach to the harsh realities of the streets and to life as a whole It s a story about change decisions and consequences This is one man s story It s an urban story about God This is certainly not a street tale lacking depth one without significant meaning or positive goals This story is about family trials perseverance love God life and its purpose This read will erase any doubt and convince all that anything is possible for anyone The author assures us all that this is a story told with two main goals in mind to Glorify God and to strive for a good future while loving every human being along the way

A Long Way Home Terence Dillon,2013-12-11 A Long Way Home is a dramatic and tension filled fictional story that explores the relationship between the English and the Irish in the late nineteenth century It provides a fascinating insight into the issues created when those looking for conciliation come into conflict with those relying on confrontation in the struggle for Irish independence The book traces the experiences of Paul Doherty an Irishman immigrant In a story that raises important issues of race class religion sex violence and secret societies Doherty struggles to look for conciliation rather than confrontation bringing him into conflict with his great friend and fellow Irishman Will who is a member of the Irish Republican Brotherhood The theme of confrontation and conciliation continues through the relationships Doherty has with the English arch racist Maurice Whitehouse and the English philanthropist William Harding The book also draws upon comparisons between life in rural Ireland and the dark streets of an English industrial town of the late nineteenth century as it builds to a powerful conclusion of romance and violence
