Pacific Worlds Matt K. Matsuda, 2012-01-19 Asia the Pacific Islands and the coasts of the Americas have long been studied separately This essential single volume history of the Pacific traces the global interactions and remarkable peoples that have connected these regions with each other and with Europe and the Indian Ocean for millennia From ancient canoe navigators monumental civilisations pirates and seaborne empires to the rise of nuclear testing and global warming Matt Matsuda ranges across the frontiers of colonial history anthropology and Pacific Rim economics and politics piecing together a history of the region The book identifies and draws together the defining threads and extraordinary personal narratives which have contributed to this history showing how localised contacts and contests have often blossomed into global struggles over colonialism tourism and the rise of Asian economies Drawing on Asian Oceanian European American ancient and modern narratives the author assembles a fascinating Pacific region from a truly global perspective Offshoot Donna Lee Brien, Quinn Eades, 2018 Offshoot includes essays in life writing methodologies and approaches as well as a series of creative work poetry and prose that engages with current life writing This collection highlights the development and influence of the genre in the twenty first century Starting from the premise that life writing is a significant component of both contemporary artistic practice and scholarship Offshoot provides a necessary re evaluation of the mode its contemporary sub generic incarnations as well as methodological and practical approaches The book presents research on a wide range of approaches including both traditional areas such as literature and creative writing and areas that have not previously been associated with life writing scholarship With its multifaceted readings Offshoot signals a shift in life writing research tending towards an expansive hybrid experimental and rhizomic approach Subject Life Writing Education Literature

The Tin Ticket Deborah J. Swiss, 2010-10-05 The convict women who built a continent A moving and fascinating story Adam Hochschild author of King Leopold s Ghost Historian Deborah J Swiss tells the heartbreaking horrifying and ultimately triumphant story of the women exiled from the British Isles and forced into slavery and savagery who created the most liberated society of their time The Tin Ticket takes us to the dawn of the nineteenth century and into the lives of Agnes McMillan whose defiance and resilience carried her to a far more dramatic rebellion Agnes s best friend Janet Houston who rescued her from the Glasgow wynds and was also transported to Van Diemen s Land Ludlow Tedder forced to choose just one of her four children to accompany her to the other side of the world Bridget Mulligan who gave birth to a line of powerful women stretching to the present day It also tells the tale of Elizabeth Gurney Fry a Quaker reformer who touched all their lives Ultimately it is the story of women discarded by their homeland and forgotten by history who by sheer force of will become the heart and soul of a new nation A Long Way Home Mike Walker, 2005-05-27 Mike Walker takes us on a journey from a tiny village in Cornwall through the criminal stews of Georgian London to the hold of a disease ridden convict ship and on to the far end of the Earth Then in an isolated prison colony with only a few weeks of supplies between it and starvation we follow Mary Broad on a 3000 mile journey in a 20 foot boat from freedom to shipwreck and re incarceration in a London prison cell where she faces the death sentence for the second time or the possibility of starting the terrible experience all over again Her salvation comes in the unlikely form of James Boswell lawyer and gentleman who defends her case and wins her freedom Mary Broad s story is brought to life in Mike Walker s hands with the help of original diaries state records and newspapers describing the conditions and events of the day and the incredible hardships and losses suffered by our heroine The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005 Life Lessons From Historical Women Eleanor Morton,2024-08-15 Eleanor is annoyingly clever maddeningly funny as this book proves She may have to be destroyed Dawn French Take a tour of the past and uncover stories of the women whose lives and achievements have shaped our modern world In Life Lessons from Historical Women Eleanor Morton celebrates the ordinary women whose decisions and accomplishments in their everyday lives resonate with us today Taking inspiration from the thriving self help genre Morton reasons that the greatest lessons can be taken from the female forebears who have come before women whose actions inspire purpose creativity and rebellion without a side of pseudo psychology and judgement Covering the full gamut of the female experience and women from all corners of history and the globe Life Lessons from Historical Women includes chapters on How To Thrive with Judith Kerr Think Like an Entrepreneur with Mary Seacole and How Not to Give a F ck with the famous suffragette martyr Emily Davison Whether it s what we can learn from the first woman to summit Everest or the trailblazing ladies who confirm that pockets have always been must have in women s clothing Eleanor writes with humour and a sincere respect for our history and imparts valuable lessons for the modern female The Illustrated London News ,1844 Books ,1939-03 The Saturday Review ,1938 Illustrated Times ,1859 Debauched, Desperate, Deranged Carolyn A. Conley,2020-10-31 Contemporary studies have concluded that women are far less likely to kill than men and that when women do kill they do so within the family Debauched Desperate Deranged Women Who Killed London 1674 1913 examines the evolution of this pattern in the over 1400 trials in which women were prosecuted for homicide in London from the late seventeenth century until just before the First World War Which deaths were considered homicides and in what circumstances women were culpable illustrates profound changes in the prevailing assumptions about women The outcomes of trials and the portrayals of these women in the press illuminate changes in perceptions of women s status and their physical and mental limitations Debauched Desperate Deranged breaks new ground in existing studies of gender and homicide using a long time frame to discern which trends are brief anomalies and which represent significant change or continuity Debauched Desperate Deranged is the first empirical quantitatively as well as qualitatively based study of women and homicide from the seventeenth century to the twentieth It presents new and significant conclusions on changing incidence of maternal homicides and the remarkable constancy of spousal homicides The Examiner ,1856 A Standard History of Oklahoma Joseph Bradfield Thoburn,1916 The Review of reviews ,1892 A STANDARD
