The Postsouthern Sense of Place in Contemporary Fiction Martyn Bone,2014-01-13 For generations southern novelists and critics have grappled with a concept that is widely seen as a trademark of their literature a strong attachment to geography or a sense of place In the 1930s the Agrarians accorded special meaning to rural life particularly the farm in their definitions of southern identity For them the South seemed an organic and rooted region in contrast to the North where real estate development and urban sprawl evoked a faceless raw capitalism By the end of the twentieth century however economic and social forces had converged to create a modernized South How have writers responded to this phenomenon Is there still a sense of place in the South or perhaps a distinctly postsouthern sense of place Martyn Bone innovatively draws upon postmodern thinking to consider the various perspectives that southern writers have brought to the concept of place and to look at its fate in a national and global context He begins with a revisionist assessment of the Agrarians who failed in their attempts to turn their proprietary ideal of the small farm into actual policy but whose broader rural aesthetic lived on in the work of neo Agrarian writers including William Faulkner and Eudora Welty By the 1950s adherence to this aesthetic was causing southern writers and critics to lose sight of the social reality of a changing South Bone turns to more recent works that do respond to the impact of capitalist spatial development on the South and on the nation generally including that self declared international city Atlanta Close readings of novels by Robert Penn Warren Walker Percy Richard Ford Anne Rivers Siddons Tom Wolfe and Toni Cade Bambara illuminate evolving ideas about capital land labor and class while introducing southern literary studies into wider debates around social cultural and literary geography Bone concludes his remarkably rich book by considering works of Harry Crews and Barbara Kingsolver that suggest the southern sense of place may be not only post Agrarian or postsouthern but also transnational

#This is Crazy! Fulton County Jail Systemic Institutionalization of Atlanta's Black Youths Danny V. Wright,2025-01-16 When you live in a poor neighborhood you are living in an area where you have poor schools When you have poor schools you have poor teachers When you have poor teachers you get a poor education With a poor education you can only work on a poor paying job and that poor paying job enables you to live again in a poor neighborhood So it s a very vicious cycle Malcolm X Malcolm s X quote rings true to the core today as my six days of incarceration at Fulton County s Jail on Rice Street allowed me to witness the historical widely reported medical neglect malnourished meals overcrowding violence abuse and unsanitary conditions Most importantly I was blessed to hear the stories of Black youths and alleged gang member inmates who all seemingly have one thing in common they all live in poor neighborhoods Ten Black inmates died in 2023 from the above mentioned reasons four occurred in August alone After being asked Is Donald Trump and the Republican Party racists My attempts to educate my younger cellmate referred to as Nephew and me widely known in urban culture as OGEE on the origin of the Civil Rights Movement starting with Frederick Douglass undoubtedly considered the Father of the movement My 22 year old cellmate who s the son of a Chief of Police replied Who is Frederick Douglass This Is Crazy Fulton County s Systemic Institutionalization of Atlanta s Black Youths not only reveals the horrid conditions and violence at the jail but also offers an informative factual historical account of the Civil Rights Movement throughout history shedding light in attempt to hold elected local officials politicians commissioners sheriff departments and District attorneys accountable for the conditions we are in Angel, Falling Larry Patrick Shriner,2008-02-27 Young women disappear with depressing regularity in the Southern city of Atlanta Georgia Unfortunately no one really cares if they ever show up again Private detective Bennett Cole knows this better than most He s had his share of tough cases that didn t turn out so well and he d rather not take this latest one on But when the friend of a missing young woman named Angel asks him to find her Cole ignores his instincts and accepts the job It s a case that will take Cole from Atlanta s seamy underbelly to the playgrounds of the rich and famous on the beaches of Florida And in his search he finds far more than he bargained for violence drugs and Angel a woman who is not at all what she seems With the help of a beautiful massage therapist Cole confronts unlikely suspects encounters deceit in the wealthy enclaves of West Florida and Atlanta and even stumbles upon a murder or two As the mounting tension and danger nearly drag Cole to his knees he realizes that his quest for the truth about Angel may send him straight to the depths of hell Hard hitting and action packed Angel Falling will draw you into Cole s quest for the truth The End of the Circle A.G. Raymond,2021-06-03 This is a story like one you ve heard many times before It s a story about five gunshots It s a story about a police shooting a shooting of an unarmed man the wrong man a young man wearing the wrong clothes in the wrong place at the wrong time a young man with dark skin and dark curly hair a teenager on a short vacation with his dad a teenager in an airport standing over a gun that was not his a fifteen year old boy with autism concerned about the gun lying on the floor so he stood over it It s the story of a young man big for his age a gentle giant staring down a policeman s handgun with a crowd forming around him looking for his dad confused scared overwhelmed It s a story of a boy who didn t comply fast enough who couldn t comply who froze up who withdrew A boy overwhelmed confused and scared upon seeing his father suddenly reached It s a story of how five gunshots that separated that boy from his father forever But this isn t that story This is a story like one you ve never heard before This is the story about a man a father the same father still grieving eighteen months later the father who stepped into a bookstore for the briefest of moment the man the father who was trained to spot trouble trained to solve problems the father who could only watch but did not want to see This is the story of that man and a job across country about an airport the same airport and the same man the father walking through that airport guilt ridden wrecked alone who still looks but does not want to see This is a story about a man who sees something in that airport someone someone he knows someone he was not supposed to see ever again This is that story      Not Here, Not Now, Not That! Steven J. Tepper, 2011-06-15 In the late 1990s Angels in America Tony Kushner s epic play about homosexuality and AIDS in the Reagan era toured the country inspiring protests in a handful of cities while others received it warmly Why do people fight over some works of art but not others Not Here Not Now Not That examines a wide range of controversies over films books paintings sculptures clothing music and television in dozens of cities across the country to find out what turns personal offense into public protest What Steven J Tepper discovers is that these protests are always deeply rooted in local concerns Furthermore they are essential to the process of working out our differences in a civil society To explore the local nature of public protests in detail Tepper analyzes cases in seventy one cities including an in depth look at Atlanta in the late 1990s finding that debates there over memorials public artworks books and parades served as a way for Atlantans to develop a vision of the future at a time of rapid growth and change Eschewing simplistic narratives that reduce public protests to political maneuvering Not Here Not Now Not That at last provides the social context necessary to fully understand this fascinating phenomenon      Housing and Urban Development Notes ,1963
