TONY WESTON, 2019-06-05 A continuation of poetry diary kept in an old fool's declining years Looking Good . . . Every Day Nancy Nix-Rice, 2014-09-01 Any woman can look and feel lovely regardless of her age bank balance or pant size and Looking Good Every Day defines a simple yet sophisticated standard for women to determine exactly which clothes and accessories will showcase their unique beauty The points of connection method explains that the more characteristics that exist in common between a woman and her outfit the more lovely she will look It shifts emphasis from hiding her perceived figure challenges and focuses on spotlighting her personal assets By choosing wardrobe additions in this way everything in her closet will work together She has more outfits from fewer garments allowing her to buy higher quality garments without increasing her budget Photography of real women ranging from 22 to 80 years old and from size 4 to 24 illustrates the universal impact points of connection make in their appearance Looking Good and Doing Good Jerome L. Himmelstein, 1997-05-22 Political controversy is a lens through which the author examines corporate philanthropy He explains why corporate philanthropy has become politicized how corporations respond to controversy about their donations and what the conflicts tell us about corporate philanthropy and corporate politics Himmelstein argues that corporate giving sometimes becomes politicized because it is inherently a complex social and political act Drawing on in depth interviews with managers at fifty five of the largest corporate giving programs in the U S Himmelstein shows that corporate giving often finds itself as one manager put it locked in a struggle between looking good and doing good Back cover Looking Good Dead Peter James, 2011-12-13 Tom Bryce does what any decent person would do He picks up a CD left behind on the train seat next to him and attempts to return it to its owner But he soon becomes the sole witness to a vicious murder His young family is threatened with their lives if he goes to the police Supported by his wife Kellie he bravely makes a statement to the murder enquiry team headed by Detective Superintendent Roy Grace a man with demons of his own including his missing wife to contend with And from that moment the killing of the Bryce family becomes a mere formality and a grisly attraction Kellie and Tom's deaths have already been posted on the internet You can log on and see them on a website They are looking good dead Looking Good Dead is another chilling page turner in Peter James bestselling mystery series Looking Good Feeling Great Ladies 50 and Over Nina Bagnall, 2009 Bagnall provides some of the best up to date information on how to stop lamenting one's age and start living life to its fullest Looking Good Margaret A. Lowe, 2003 Winner of the Bridgewater State College Class of 1950 Distinguished Faculty Research Award Toward the end of the nineteenth century as young women began entering college in greater numbers than ever before physicians and social critics charged that campus life posed grave hazards to the female constitution and women's reproductive health. A girl could study and learn. Dr. Edward Clarke warned in his widely read 1873 book Sex in Education but she could not do all this and retain uninjured health and a future secure from neuralgia, uterine disease, hysteria, and other derangements of the nervous system. For half a century, ideas such as Dr. Clarke's framed the debate over a woman's place in higher education almost exclusively in terms of her body and her health. For historian Margaret A. Lowe, this obsession offers one of the clearest expressions of the social and cultural meanings given to the female body between 1875 and 1930. At the same time, the college girl was a novelty that tested new ideas about feminine beauty, sexuality, and athleticism. In Looking Good, Lowe examines the ways in which college women at three quite different institutions—Cornell University, Smith College, and Spelman College—regarded their own bodies in this period. Contrasting white and black students, single sex and coeducational schools, secular and religious environments, and Northern and Southern attitudes, Lowe draws on student diaries, letters, and publications, institutional records, and accounts in the popular press to examine the process by which new twentieth-century ideals of the female body took hold in America.

You Look Good for Your Age Rona Altrows, 2021-07-07 You Look Good for Your Age is a collection of fiction, non-fiction, and poetry about ageism by 29 women writers ranging in age from forties to nineties. The anthology responds to a culture that values youth and that positions aging in women as a failure. Questions arise: What effects do negative social assumptions have on women as they age? What messages about aging do we pass on to our daughters? Through essays, short stories, and poetry, the contributing writers explore these questions with thoughtfulness, satire, and fury. Contributors: Rona Altrows, Debbie Bateman, Moni Brar, Maureen Bush, Sharon Butala, Jane Cawthorne, Joan Crate, Dora Dueck, Cecelia Frey, Ariel Gordon, Elizabeth Greene, Vivian Hansen, Joyce Harries, Elizabeth Haynes, Paula Kirman, Joy Kogawa, Laurie MacFayden, JoAnn McCaig, Wendy McGrath, E.
