Majjhima Nikaya Volume 4:

The Wisdom of the Lotus Sutra, vol. 4 Daisaku Ikeda, 2022-05-01 The Lotus Sutra Shakyamuni Buddha's highest teaching explains that all people regardless of gender, social status or education can uncover the Buddha nature they inherently possess. Based on this empowering and compassionate sutra, Nichiren Daishonin revealed the supreme practice for the modern world. Now in clear, down-to-earth terms, SGI President Ikeda and Soka Gakkai Study Department leaders Katsuji Saito, Takanori Endo, and Haruo Suda explore the profound meaning of the Lotus Sutra's twenty-eight chapters. Basing themselves on Nichiren Daishonin's lectures on the Lotus Sutra, The Record of the Orally Transmitted Teachings, they explain the concepts that form the foundation of SGI members' Buddhist practice. Through their discussions, the ancient text of the Lotus Sutra comes alive, brimming with profound significance and practical advice for living in today's world. Volume four covers chapter 16 of the twenty-eight chapters of the Lotus Sutra.

Biomedical Ethics (Volume 4 Part 1) Shiva Nath Prasad, Avinash Kumar Srivastava, 2018-01-01 The present volume is given to the study of Biomedical Ethics, which is by far the most difficult as well as a new branch of Applied Ethics on which very scanty materials are available. The branch called Biomedical is concerned with life. The book discusses various problems of life right from the primary stage of conception, foetus, female foeticide, new techniques of cloning, euthanasia, ageing in its multiple aspects, organ transplantation, Intellectual Property Rights, Copy Rights, bio technology, neuro diseases, and ethics of care. Health in Buddhist contexts, bioethics in Buddhists texts, and bioethics in Indian context in general, etc. The book provides rich information about all these complex problems, all of which come from specialized scholars of this field having experience as well as expertise and would prove a most valuable textbook not only to the scholars/students engaged in the study in this field but to the curious common readers as well.

Trenckner,1993 Emotions and Religious Dynamics Nathaniel A. Warne,2016-05-13 We all feel emotions and are moved to action by them Religious communities often select and foster certain emotions over others Without understanding this it is hard to grasp the way groups view the world and each other Often it is the underlying emotional pattern of a group rather than its doctrines that either divides it from or attracts it to others These issues so important in today s world are explored in this book in a genuinely interdisciplinary way by anthropologists psychologists theologians and historians of religion and in some detailed studies of well and less well known religious traditions from across the world The Origins of Religious Violence Nicholas F. Gier,2014-08-20 Religiously motivated violence caused by the fusion of state and religion occurred in medieval Tibet and Bhutan and later in imperial Japan but interfaith conflict also followed colonial incursions in India Sri Lanka and Burma Before that time there was a general premodern harmony among the resident religions of the latter countries and only in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries did religiously motivated violence break out While conflict caused by Hindu fundamentalists has been serious and widespread a combination of medieval Tibetan Buddhists and modern Sri Lankan Japanese and Burmese Buddhists has caused the most violence among the Asian religions However the Chinese Taiping Christians have the world record for the number of religious killings by one single sect A theoretical investigation reveals that specific aspects of the Abrahamic religions an insistence on the purity of revelation a deity who intervenes in history but one who still is primarily transcendent may be primary causes of religious conflict Only one factor a mystical monism not favored in Judaism Christianity and Islam was the basis of a distinctively Japanese Buddhist call for individuals to identify totally with the emperor and to wage war on behalf of a divine ruler The Origins of Religious Violence An Asian Perspective uses a methodological heuristic of premodern modern and constructive postmodern forms of thought to analyze causes and offer solutions to religious violence The Modern Review Ramananda Chatterjee,1922 Includes section Reviews and notices of books Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein,2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the
