Enchantment the Art and Life of Lilian Westcott Hale Diane Elizabeth Kelleher, 2013-10-28 As the title suggests this book concerns the art and life of the world's only American Linear Impressionist Lilian Westcott Hale Born in Connecticut in 1881 Hale was educated primarily at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts Boston and lived for many years in nearby Dedham moving to Charlottesville Virginia after the death of her beloved educator art critic author and painter husband Philip Leslie Hale A woman Hale far outpaced the success of many men including her husband During her early decades of activity Hale garnered innumerable national awards accolades and prizes and international acclaim for her oil portraits of children women in interiors and charcoal sketches of snowy landscapes all created in an Impressionist style utilizing only vertical strokes Hale was the originator and sole practitioner of a technique which paradoxically used line in an Impressionist manner While her classic art fell out of favor during the Modernist 1940s and later it is now once again very much in vogue My relationship with the artist's only child her daughter Nancy was of immeasurable assistance in the production of this book Diane Elizabeth Kelleher Shrewsbury Massachusetts 2013

Les Fauves Russell T. Clement, 1994-05-25 This is the first comprehensive scholarly bibliography research guide sourcebook on the major French Fauve painters Henri Matisse and Georges Braque are treated in separate Greenwood bio bibliographies It includes information on 3120 books and articles as well as chronologies biographical sketches and exhibition lists Each artist receives a primary and secondary bibliography with many annotated entries Secondary bibliographies include details about each artist's life and career relationships with other artists work in various media iconography and more Designed for art historians art students museum and gallery curators and art lovers alike this volume organizes the vast literature surrounding this fascinating revolutionary 20th century art group Genuinely new art is always challenging sometimes even shocking to those unprepared for it In 1905 the paintings of Matisse Derain Vlaminck and their friends shocked conservative museum goers hence the eventual popularity of art critic Louis Vauxcelles's tag les fauves or wild beasts by which these artists became known Although it lasted only three or four years Fauvism is recognized as the first artistic revolution of international consequence in the 20th century It was based on the glorification of pure saturated colors and the free expression of primitivism It was a dynamic sensualism an equilibrium of passion and order fire and austerity that could not last By the end of 1908 Fauvism collapsed in the face of Cubism which moreover several Fauve artists helped to form

A New History of Western Art Koenraad Jonckheere, 2022-10-15 A radical re-examination of 2500 years of European art deconstructing and demystifying its long history from ancient to present How has art evolved from the pursuit of the ideal human form to a black square on a white canvas Why is a banana duct taped to a wall worth more on the art market than a beautiful seventeenth century landscape By taking art for what it actually is a piece of stone or wood a sheet of paper with some lines drawn on it a painted canvas this lively and accessible account shows how seemingly meaningless objects can be transformed into celebrated works of art Breaking with conventional notions of artistic genius Koenraad Jonckheere explores how stories and emotions give meaning to objects and why changing historical circumstances result in such shifting opinions over time Tracing its story from ancient times to present A New History of Western Art reframes the evolution of European art and radically reshapes our understanding of art history Published in association with Hannibal Books Art as Abstract Machine Stephen Zepke, 2014-02-04 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Cubism and Futurism R. Bruce Elder, 2018-06-30 Cubism and futurism were closely related movements that vied with each other in the economy of renown Perception dynamism and the dynamism of perception these were the issues that passed back and forth between the two Cubism and Futurism Spiritual Machines and the Cinematic Effect shows how movement became in the traditional visual arts a central factor with the advent of the cinema gone were the days when an artwork strived merely to lift experience out the realm of change and flow The cinema at this time was understood as an electric art akin to X rays coloured light and sonic energy In this book celebrated filmmaker and author Bruce Elder connects the dynamism that the cinema made an essential feature of the new artwork to the new science of electromagnetism Cubism is a movement on the cusp of the transition from the Cartesian world of standardized Cartesian coordinates and interchangeable machine parts to a Galvanic world of continuities and flows In contrast futurism embraced completely the emerging electromagnetic view of reality Cubism and Futurism examines the similarity and differences between the two movements engagement with the new science of energy and shows that the notion of energy made central to the new artwork by the cinema assumed a spiritual dimension as the cinema itself came to be seen as a pneumatic machine A World History of Art Hugh Honour, John Fleming, 2005 Over two decades this art historical tour de force has consistently proved the classic introduction to humanity's artistic heritage From our paleolithic past to our digitised present every continent and culture is covered in an articulate and well balanced discussion In this Seventh Edition the text has been revised to embrace developments in archaeology and art historical research while the renowned contemporary art historian Michael Archer has greatly expanded the discussion of the past twenty years providing a new perspective on the latest developments The insight elegance and fluency that the authors bring to their text are complemented by 1458 superb illustrations half of which are now in colour These images together with the numerous maps and architectural plans have been chosen to represent the most significant chronological regional and individual styles of artistic expression Flight Out of Time Hugo Ball, 1996-05-06 A key document Indispensable for an understanding of the beginnings of the Dada movement and Dada in Zurich Rudolf Kuenzli Director International Dada Archive In Flight Out of Time one can follow Dada
