Make Space Make Symbols A Personal Journey Into Prayer:

Make Space, Make Symbols Keith Clark, 1979 A personal statement of a man's experience in prayer The author offers theological reflections on his own praying and the experiences others have shared with him The Biblical roots of the book are strong and his interpretations of the selections used always enlightening The author modernizes some classical ideas about prayer by breaking out of traditional methodological restrictions and writing in new enriching terminology The result of this approach is insights that arise from the experience of today's Christian and a method that is both different and rewarding

The Call to Wholeness: Health as a Spiritual Journey Kenneth L. Bakken, 2009-09-01 We all encounter times of physical illness as well as of emotional psychological and spiritual distress and pain We are all in need of healing in every aspect of life In this important new book a physician specializing in preventive medicine integrates learnings from both science and religion to present a holistic approach to well being that is rooted in a new understanding of Christian principles an approach that has already proven effective in countless lives Using examples of people who have been healed Dr Bakken shows how stress fear anxiety anger guilt depression loneliness and unforgiveness contributes to disease and how spiritual growth perfect love casts out fear promotes health healing and wholeness Both practical and inspiring The Call to Wholeness is at once a convincing synthesis of several disciplines and an authentic witness to the healing power of Jesus Christ It demonstrates that God is the author renewer and sustainer of all life and the ultimate source of all healing It challenges individuals the Church and the medical establishment to expand their view of reality in the context of a Christ centered spirituality that can bring true and lasting wholeness to each and all of us Publishers Weekly, 1979
