Making African Diaspora Americas 1441 19:

The Making of the African Diaspora in the Americas, 1441-1900 Vincent Bakpetu Thompson, 1987 This work examines the core period of the African diaspora in the Americas The author confronts myths surrounding the ethos of this diaspora which were induced by the mercantilist preoccupations of Western Europe The entire period is portrayed as a battle between two conflicting and opposite strategies that of the slavocracy and that of the enslaved Africans culminating in the conversion of the French colony of St Domingue into the revolutionary state of Haiti The author suggests that Haiti because of its position in the midst of hostile slave societies provided inspiration for the antislavery crusade in both its particularistic and its international aspects The epilogue provides a glimpse into the author's second book on the divergent perceptions in the early evolution of leadership in the African diaspora in the Americas Amazon.com viewed Oct 26 2022

The African Diaspora Patrick Manning, 2009-05-19 Patrick Manning refuses to divide the African diaspora into the experiences of separate regions and nations Instead he follows the multiple routes that brought Africans and people of African descent into contact with one another and with Europe Asia and the Americas In weaving these stories together Manning shows how the waters of the Atlantic Ocean the Mediterranean Sea and the Indian Ocean fueled dynamic interactions among black communities and cultures and how these patterns resembled those of a number of connected diasporas concurrently taking shape across the globe Manning begins in 1400 and traces five central themes the connections that enabled Africans to mutually identify and hold together as a global community discourses on race changes in economic circumstance the character of family life and the evolution of popular culture His approach reveals links among seemingly disparate worlds In the mid nineteenth century for example slavery came under attack in North America South America southern Africa West Africa the Ottoman Empire and India with former slaves rising to positions of political prominence Yet at the beginning of the twentieth century the near elimination of slavery brought new forms of discrimination that removed almost all blacks from government for half a century Manning underscores the profound influence that the African diaspora had on world history demonstrating the inextricable link between black migration and the rise of modernity especially in regards to the processes of industrialization and urbanization A remarkably inclusive and far reaching work The African Diaspora proves that the advent of modernity cannot be imaginatively or comprehensively engaged without taking the African peoples and the African continent as a whole into account

Slavery and its Legacy in Ghana and the Diaspora Rebecca Shumway, Trevor R. Getz, 2017-10-19 Ghana for all its notable strides toward more egalitarian political and social systems in the past 60 years remains a nation plagued with inequalities stemming from its long history of slavery and slave trading The work assembled in this collection explores the history of slavery in Ghana and its legacy for both Ghana and the descendants of people sold as slaves from the Gold Coast in the era of the transatlantic slave trade The volume is structured to reflect four overlapping areas of investigation the changing nature of slavery in Ghana including the ways in which enslaved people have been integrated into or excluded from kinship systems social institutions politics and the workforce over time the long standing connections forged between Ghana and the Americas and Europe through the transatlantic trading system and the forced migration of enslaved people the development of indigenous and transnational anti slavery ideologies and the legacy of slavery and its ongoing reverberations in Ghanaian and diasporic society Bringing together key scholars from Ghana Europe and the USA who introduce new sources frames and methodologies including heritage gender critical race and culture studies and drawing on archival documents and oral histories Slavery and Its Legacy in Ghana and the Diaspora will be of great interest to scholars and students of comparative slavery abolition and West African history Rethinking American History in a Global Age Thomas Bender, 2002-05-14 In rethinking and reframing the American national narrative in a wider context the contributors to this volume ask questions about both nationalism and the discipline of history itself The essays offer fresh ways of thinking about the traditional themes and periods of American history By locating the study of American history in a transnational context they examine the history of nation making and the relation of the United States to other nations and to transnational developments What is now called globalization is here placed in a historical context A cast of distinguished historians from the United States and abroad examines the historiographical implications of such a reframing and offers alternative interpretations of large questions of American history ranging from the era of European contact to democracy and reform from environmental and economic development and migration experiences to issues of nationalism and identity But the largest issue explored is basic to all histories How does one understand teach and write a national history even as one recognizes that the territorial boundaries do not fully contain that history and that within that bounded territory the society is highly differentiated marked by multiple solidarities and identities Rethinking American History in a Global Age advances an emerging but important conversation marked by divergent voices many of which are represented here The various essays explore big concepts and offer historical narratives that enrich the content and context of American history The aim is to provide a history that more accurately reflects the dimensions of American experience and better connects the past with contemporary concerns for American identity structures of power and world presence Unyielding Spirits Maureen Elgersman Lee, 1999 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Edward W. Blyden's Intellectual Transformations Harry N. K. Odamtten, 2019-08-01 Distinguished by its multidisciplinary dexterity this book is a masterfully woven reinterpretation of the life travels and scholarship of Edward W Blyden arguably the most influential Black intellectual of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It traces Blyden s various moments of intellectual transformation through the multiple lenses of ethnicity race religion and identity in the historical context of Atlantic exchanges the Back to Africa movement colonialism and the global Black intellectual movement In this book Blyden is shown as an African public intellectual who sought to reshape ideas about Africa circulating in the Atlantic world The author also highlights Blyden s contributions to different public spheres in Europe in the Jewish Diaspora in the Muslim and

Christian world of West Africa and among Blacks in the United States Additionally this book places Blyden at the pinnacle of Afropublicanism in order to emphasize his public intellectualism his rootedness in the African historical experience and the scholarship he produced about Africa and the African Diaspora As Blyden is an important contributor to African studies among other disciplines this volume makes for critical scholarly reading Invisible Sojourners John A. Arthur,2000-09-30 Arthur documents the role that Africa s best and brightest play in the new migration of population from less developed countries to the United States He highlights how Africans negotiate and forge relationships among themselves and with the members of the host society Multiple aspects of the African immigrants social world family patterns labor force participation and formation of cultural identities are also examined He lays out the long term aspirations of the immigrants within the context of the geo political economic and social conditions in Africa Ultimately Arthur explains why people leave Africa what they encounter their interactions with the host society and their attitudes about American social institutions He also provides information about the social changes and policies that African countries need to adopt to stem the tide or even reverse the African brain drain A detailed analysis for scholars students and other researchers involved with African and immigration studies and contemporary American society Unyielding Spirits Maureen G. Elgersman,2014-01-21 This comparative study uncovers the differences and similarities in the experiences of Black women enslaved in colonial Canada and Jamaica and demonstrates how differences in the exploitation of women s productive and reproductive labor caused slavery to falter in Canada and excel in the Caribbean The research suggests that while the majority of Black women enslaved in early Canada were domestics the majority of Jamaican women were field laborers often performing some of the most labor intensive work on the sugar plantations While the efforts of the planter class to increase the number of children born to Jamaican women were not completely successful reproduction seems to have been less of a concern in Canada where many Black women were often sold or freed because there was no use for them The Canadian slave context seems to have allowed a broader range of material comfort as well Despite obvious labor differences Black women in Canada and Jamaica rejected their chattel status and condition and resisted slavery similarly This study is unique in its desire and ability to place Black Canadian slave women at the center of research and then contextualize it with a Caribbean model The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham,2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America Racism in Contemporary America Meyer Weinberg,1996-05-23 Racism in Contemporary America is the largest and most up to date bibliography available on current research on the topic It has been compiled by award winning researcher Meyer Weinberg who has spent many years writing and researching contemporary and historical aspects of racism Almost 15 000 entries to books articles dissertations and other materials are organized under 87 subject headings In addition there are author and ethnic racial indexes Several aids help the researcher access the materials included In addition to the subject organization of the bibliography entries are annotated whenever the title is not self explanatory An author index is followed by an ethnic racial index which makes it convenient to follow a single group through any or all the subject headings This is a source book for the serious study of America s most enduring problem as such it will be of value to students and researchers at all levels and in most disciplines Teaching American History in a Global Context Carl J. Guarneri,Jim Davis,2015-07-17 This comprehensive resource is an invaluable teaching aid for adding a global dimension to students understanding of American history It includes a wide range of materials from scholarly articles and reports to original syllabi and ready to use lesson plans to guide teachers in enlarging the frame of introductory American history courses to an international view The contributors include well known American history scholars as well as gifted classroom teachers and the book s emphasis on immigration race and gender points to ways for teachers to integrate international and multicultural education America in the World and the World in America in their courses The book also includes a Views from Abroad section that examines problems and strategies for teaching American history to foreign audiences or recent immigrants A comprehensive annotated guide directs teachers to additional print and online resources

Nations Abroad Charles King,2018-02-19 This book discusses trans border ethnic populations in the former Soviet Union in a broader conceptual context highlighting the importance of diaspora issues both for post Sovietologists and for scholars of comparative politics and international relations in general Cultures in Contact Dirk Hoerder,2002-11-21 Analysis of migrations regional interregional continent wide and global and the resulting cultural interactions and societal changes

W. E. B. Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty-First Century Reiland Rabaka,2008-04-29 W E B Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty First Century utilizes Du Bois s thought and texts to develop an informed critical theory of contemporary society This book broadens the base of critical theory making it more multicultural transethnic transgender and non Western European philosophy focused by placing it in dialogue with theory and phenomena that had been heretofore woefully neglected Taking the preeminent black intellectual of the twentieth century as his primary point of departure Reiland Rabaka identifies and analyzes several key contributions that Du Bois and the black racial tradition offer to those interested in redeveloping and racially revising contemporary critical social theory With chapters on critical race theory postcolonial theory feminism and Marxism this volume builds bridges from Africana Studies to disparate discursive communities accessibly demonstrating Du Bois s and the black radical tradition s contributions to and the potential impact on a wide range of new social scientific research and radical political struggles African-American Studies Core List of Resources ,2004 The African American Studies Core List is an annotated checklist of scholarly books providing a snapshot of the resources used in the instruction of the black experience in the Americas during a given academic year The Core List is for use by academic department administrators researchers publishers of Africana materials as well as librarians selecting materials for instruction and research in the field of African American studies The Core List contains 304 key titles in 50

Constructs of "home" in Gloria Naylor's Quartet Claudia Drieling, 2011 Ethnic Studies Research Timothy P. Fong, 2008-05-02 Study of ethnic groups and race relations have always existed in the academy primarily in the areas of sociology and anthropology However grassroots movements for ethnic studies programs and departments came about with very different agendas for the study of these groups It is surprising then that relatively few books devoted to these methods exist to document and promote this innovation among succeeding generations of graduate students as well as current academics and professional practitioners Ethnic Studies Research synthesizes and benchmarks ethnic studies methodologies as interdisciplinary modes of inquiry providing state of the art summary chapters on key methods and issues extensive bibliographies and promising new directions for the future Africans of the Diaspora Vincent Bakpetu Thompson, 2000 A study of the evolution and role of African people in the social and political structures of the Americas Particular emphasis is placed on the evolution of leadership within the United States The Global African Omari H.
