Making Of Martial Arts Films Pb:

Wong Kar-wai Peter Brunette, 2005-03-22 Called the leading heir to the great directors of post WWII Europe and lavished with awards Wong Kar wai has redefined perceptions of Hong Kong's film industry Wong's visual brilliance and emphasis on atmosphere over action have set him apart from peers while earning him an admiring international audience In the Mood for Love regularly appears on lists of the twenty first century's greatest films while critics and filmgoers recognize works like Chungking Express and Happy Together as modern classics Peter Brunette describes the ways in which Wong's supremely haunting visual films create a new form of cinema by telling a story with stunning suggestive visual images and audio tracks rather than character dialogue and plot As he shows Wong's early background in genre film offers fascinating insights on his more studied later works He also delves into Wong's perennial themes of time love and loss and examines the political implications of his films especially concerning the handover of former British colony Hong Kong to the People's Republic of China Creeping Flesh David Kerekes, 2003 Horror and fantasy cinema from around the world with a distinctive retro sensibility Creeping Flesh focuses upon obscure and vilified horror movies the discovery of lost films and an appreciation of exploitation Contents include An interview with Alan Birkinshaw director of the surreal drug and schoolgirl opus Killer's Moon The forgotten inspiration for The Wicker Man and Robin Hardy's disastrous follow up The Fantasist The lifting of the ban on Ray Brady's controversial Boy Meets Girl Bill Landis and Michelle Clifford on the seminal film zine Sleazoid Express and the grindhouse theaters of old Times Square plus an overview of BBC television fantasy of the 70s now gaining cult popularity on both sides of the Atlantic Martial Arts Studies Paul Bowman, 2015-04-09 The phrase martial arts studies is increasingly circulating as a term to describe a new field of interest But many academic fields including history philosophy anthropology and Area studies already engage with martial arts in their own particular way Therefore is there really such a thing as a unique field of martial arts studies Martial Arts Studies is the first book to engage directly with these questions It assesses the multiplicity and heterogeneity of possible approaches to martial arts studies exploring orientations and limitations of existing approaches It makes a case for constructing the field of martial arts studies in terms of key coordinates from post structuralism cultural studies media studies and post colonialism By using these anti disciplinary approaches to disrupt the approaches of other disciplines Martial Arts Studies proposes a field that both emerges out of and differs from its many disciplinary locations Computer Addiction Pb Margaret A. Shotton, 1989-10-23 This is an investigation of the syndrome of computer addiction which attempts to discover if obsessive dependency is harmful to the psychological and social development It is based on case studies made of volunteers from all over the UK who considered themselves to be dependent upon computers Extensive research was carried out into these people The Publishers Weekly, 2005 Blockbuster Video Guide to Movies and Videos 1996 Ron Castell, 1995 With over 300 new entries added since the 1995 edition this ultimate video guidebook for all video viewers gives a clear plot summary of each film an MPAA rating and
