Making Of The Modern Age:

Day of Empire Amy Chua, 2009-01-06 In this sweeping history bestselling author Amy Chua explains how globally dominant empires or hyperpowers rise and why they fall In a series of brilliant chapter length studies she examines the most powerful cultures in history from the ancient empires of Persia and China to the recent global empires of England and the United States and reveals the reasons behind their success as well as the roots of their ultimate demise Chua s analysis uncovers a fascinating historical pattern while policies of tolerance and assimilation toward conquered peoples are essential for an empire to succeed the multicultural society that results introduces new tensions and instabilities threatening to pull the empire apart from within What this means for the United States uncertain future is the subject of Chua s provocative and surprising conclusion

Making Places in the Prehistoric World Joanna Bruck, Melissa Goodman, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking volume addresses issues central to the study of prehistoric settlement including group memory the transmission of ideology and the impact of mobility and seasonality on the construction of social identity Building on these themes the contributors point to new ways of understanding the relationship between settlement and landscape by replacing Capitalist models of spatial relations with more intimate histories of place

Making the Familiar

Unfamiliar Zygmunt Bauman, Peter Haffner, 2020-10-28 Shortly before his death Zygmunt Bauman spent several days in conversation with the Swiss journalist Peter Haffner Out of these conversations emerged this book in which Bauman shows himself to be the pre eminent social thinker for which he became world renowned a thinker who never shied away from addressing the great issues of our time and always strove to interrogate received wisdom and common sense to make the familiar unfamiliar As in Bauman s work more generally the personal and the political are interwoven in this book Bauman s life which followed the same trajectory as the social and political upheavals of the 20th century left its trace on his thought Bauman describes his upbringing in Poland military service in the Red Army working for the Polish Secret Service after the war and expulsion from Poland in 1968 providing personal accounts of the historical events on which he brings his social and political insights to bear His reflections on history identity Jewishness morality happiness and love are rooted in his own personal journey through the turbulent events of the 20th century to which he bore witness These last conversations shed new light on one of the greatest social thinkers of our time offering a more personal perspective on a man who changed our way of thinking about the modern world Making Global and Local Connections Tapio Bergholm, Lewis R. Fischer, M. Elisabetta Tonizzi, International Maritime Economic History Association, 2007 This book provides a series of case studies concerning ports and port communities from around the world in attempt to determine the impact of globalisation on the port industry and the link between local and global port conditions It also presents the case for the absolute necessity of ports and port systems to trade and industry on a global scale The book is comprised of ten essays the first six of which concern local issues in a rapid globalising industry The second section contains the remaining four essays which consider port systems from national perspectives The Making of T.S. Eliot Joseph Maddrey, 2009-05-13 This chronological survey of major influences on T S Eliot s worldview covers the poet s spiritual and intellectual evolution in stages by trying to see the world as Eliot did It examines his childhood influences as well as the literary influences that inspired him to write his earliest poetry his life as an American expatriate living in London from 1915 to 1930 including his ill fated marriage and his intellectual engagement with the literary traditions of his new country and the ways in which his intellectual pursuits fostered a spiritual rebirth that simultaneously reflected his past and revealed his future demonstrating how the early Romantic revolutionary became a staunch defender of tradition The Art of World-Making Harry Gould, 2017-06-26 On its face The Art of World Making focuses on honouring the career of Nicholas Greenwood Onuf and his contributions to the study of international relations of equal importance however while using Onuf s work as their touchstone the contributions to this volume range widely across IR theory making important interventions in some of the most important topics in the field today The volume considers the place of Constructivism and Republicanism in the field of international relations and the contestation that accompanies the question of their place in the field asking What explains the dominance of some forms of Constructivism and the relative lack of influence of other forms What can rule oriented Constructivism the focus here provide our field that other forms of Constructivism have been unable to Into what new and productive directions can Constructivism be taken What are its gaps and what are the resources to remedy those gaps What can Republicanism tell us about ongoing issues in international law global governance liberalism and crisis Drawing together essays from some of the leading scholars in the field space is given after each chapter for a detailed and highly personal response piece to each contribution written by Onuf This unique volume will be essential reading for students and scholars of international relations Handbook of Medieval Studies Albrecht Classen, 2010-11-29 This interdisciplinary handbook provides extensive information about research in medieval studies and its most important results over the last decades The handbook is a reference work which enables the readers to quickly and purposely gain insight into the important research discussions and to inform themselves about the current status of research in the field The handbook consists of four parts The first large section offers articles on all of the main disciplines and discussions of the field The second section presents articles on the key concepts of modern medieval studies and the debates therein The third section is a lexicon of the most important text genres of the Middle Ages The fourth section provides an international bio bibliographical lexicon of the most prominent medievalists in all disciplines A comprehensive bibliography rounds off the compendium The result is a reference work which exhaustively documents the current status of research in medieval studies and brings the disciplines and experts of the field together
