Making Of A Poem

Todd F. Davis, Erin Murphy

Making Of A Poem:

Making of a Poem Mark Strand, Eavan Boland, 2001-05-01 Concise learned revisionary should enrich the passionate conversation about poetic forms for years to come Edward Hirsch author of How to Read a Poem and Fall in Love with Poetry Two of our foremost poets provide here a lucid straightforward primer that looks squarely at some of the headaches and mysteries of poetic form a book for readers who have always felt that an understanding of form sonnet ballad villanelle sestina among others would enhance their appreciation of poetry Tracing the exuberant history of forms they devote one chapter to each form offering explanation close reading and a rich selection of exemplars that amply demonstrate the power and possibility of that form Making Poems Todd F. Davis, Erin Murphy, 2010-02-02 This diverse collection of poems and companion essays by forty nationally and internationally known poets allows readers to experience the creative process through the eyes and voice of each poet No matter how often we are told that revision is an essential component of poetic composition it can be difficult to resist the temptation to think of the poem as having sprung spontaneously Athena like from the writer's head By exposing readers to the finished product as well as the poet's own account of the poem's creation Making Poems offers a behind the scenes perspective on the poetic process that will fascinate both beginning and established writers The book also affords poetry instructors an opportunity to demonstrate to their students the ways in which poems can originate from seemingly mundane and unlikely sources To Make a Poem Alberta Turner, 1992-04 A poem comes from the same human need as a prayer a curse a lullaby and a keen How can emotion use language to satisfy its most urgent need and how can it share and prolong that satisfaction by putting it into poems that will satisfy the same need in others The answer can be learned and the skill taught Unlike many other textbooks this one has no teaching manual and Alberta Turner does not expect those who use it to agree with her interpretations Each principle is illustrated with detailed analysis of several poems but it is up to the teachers and students to decide whether it has succeeded or failed Poetic tastes can't be legislated they have to creep by underground runners Although a poem never illustrates only one poetic principle at a time this book has focused on each separately Since the book is intended to be used by beginning poets the principles are sequenced from simpler to more complex As courses in writing poetry range from two week enrichment programs to full semester college workshops the book is arranged so that the course can be shortened or lengthened This book will work best for flexible imaginative teachers of flexible imaginative students A Collegiate Press book Best of Prairie Schooner Hilda Raz, Kate Flaherty, 2000-01-01 Gathers notable essays by sixteen poets novelists and critics of Prairie Schooner who explore personal memories of planting season fishing homecoming death and homosexuality Poem-making Myra Cohn Livingston, 1991 Introduces the different kinds of poetry and the mechanics of writing poetry providing an opportunity for the reader to experience the joy of making a poem Teaching Poetry in the Primary School David Carter, 2013-11-26 First Published in 1999 Based on the author's experience of teaching poetry to children for more than thirty years this book offers guidance on engaging young children minds in poetry in line with the Literacy Hour

One Poem in Search of a Translator Eugenia Loffredo, Manuela Perteghella, 2009 Translation is a journey a journey undertaken by the text hopping around the world and mischievously border crossing from one language to another from one culture to another For a translator this journey can become a truly creative engagement with the otherness of the source text an experience of self discovery leading to understanding and enrichment and ultimately towards a new text This singular literary experiment intends to magnify the idiosyncrasy of this translational journey In the process translation reveals itself as an increasingly creative activity rather than simply a linguistic transfer This volume consists of twelve translations of one poem Les Fen tres by the French poet Apollinaire The translators embarking on this project all from different backgrounds and working contexts poets professional translators academics visual artists were asked to engage with the inherent multimodality of this poem inspired by Robert Delaunay s Les Fen tres series of paintings The result is a kaleidoscopic diversity of approaches and final products Each translation is accompanied by self reflective commentary which provides insight into the complex process and experience of translation enticing the reader to join this journey too
