Christoph Brumann, Evelyn Schulz

Making Of Urban Japan:

The Making of Urban Japan André Sorensen, 2005-08-19 This is the first book to comprehensively examine the phenomenon of Japanese city planning Japan is one of the world's most urbanized countries with its own traditions of urban management that are remarkably little known in the rest of the world

Urban Spaces in Japan Christoph Brumann, Evelyn Schulz, 2012 Urban Spaces in Japan explores the workings of power money and the public interest in the planning and design of Japanese space Through a set of vivid case studies of well known Japanese cities including Tokyo Kobe and Kyoto this book examines the potential of civil society in contemporary planning debates Further it addresses the implications of Japan's biggest social problem the demographic decline for Japanese cities and demonstrates the serious challenges and exciting possibilities that result from the impending end of Japan's urban growth Presenting a synthetic approach that reflects both the physical aspects and the social significance of urban spaces this book scrutinizes the precise patterns of urban expansion and shrinkage In doing so it also summarizes current theories of public space urban space and the body in space which are relevant to both Japan and the wider international debate With detailed case studies and more general reflections from a broad range of disciplines this collection of essays demonstrates the value of cross disciplinary cooperation As such it is of interest to students and scholars of geography and urban planning as well as history anthropology and cultural studies

Living Cities in Japan André Sorensen, Carolin Funck, 2007 Over the last fifteen years local citizens movements have spread rapidly throughout Japan This volume examines the growth and nature of civil society participation in local urban and environmental governance

Making Urban Revolution in China Joseph K. S. Yick, 1995 An attempt to rethink the traditional interpretation of the victory of Mao Zedong's Chinese Communist Party CCP in 1949 The focus is on the activities of the student intellectual based communist underground which played a crucial role

Transnational Encounters between Germany and East Asia since 1900 Joanne Miyang Cho, 2018-04-09 This volume contributes to an emerging field of Asian German Studies by bringing together cutting edge scholarship from international scholars working in a variety of disciplines The chapters survey transnational encounters between Germany and East Asia since 1900 By rejecting traditional dichotomies between the East and the West or the colonizer and the colonized these essays highlight connectedness and hybridity They show how closely Germany and East Asia cooperated and negotiated the challenges of modernity in a range of topics such as politics history literature religion environment architecture sexology migration and sports

The Urbanism of Metabolism Raffaele Pernice, 2022-03-16 This edited book explores and promotes reflection on how the lessons of Metabolism experience can inform current debate on city making and future practice in architectural design and urban planning More than sixty years after the Metabolist manifesto was published the author's original contributions highlight the persistent links between present and past that can help to re imagine new urban futures as well as the design of innovative intra urban relationships and spaces The essays are written by experienced scholars and renowned academics from Japan Australia Europe South Korea and the United States and expose Metabolism's special merits in promoting new urban models and evaluate the current legacy of its architectural projects and urban design lessons They offer a critical intellectual and up to date account of the Metabolism projects and ideas with regard to the current evolution of architectural and urbanism discourse in a global context The collection of cross disciplinary contributions in this volume will be of great interest to architects architectural and urban historians as well as academics scholars and students in built environment disciplines and Japanese cultural studies

The Urban Planetary and Tokyo Modernity Christophe Thouny, 2023-12-15

The Urban Planetary and Tokyo Modernity Dwelling in Passing analyzes everyday experiences in Tokyo during the 1910s and 1920s showing how urban literature and urban ethnography both tried to come to terms with an emerging planetary situation defined by both ongoing movement and an intensification of local experiences This book argues that modern urban experiences are not primarily a question of alienation consumerism or national life but first one of dwelling and in particular a dwelling in passing Looking at the work of the Japanese urban ethnographer Kon Wajiro in relation to early 20th century literary mappings of Tokyo in Japanese literature such as Mori Ogai's 1912 novel Youth to Tayama Katai's 1916 The Tokyo Near Suburb Christophe Thouny argues for the need to reconsider these texts in terms of a speculative genealogy of local answers to an insistent planetary situation

Japan at the Millennium David W. Edgington, 2003

Japan today is at an important historical juncture Buffeted in recent years by rapid economic social and political change yet still very much steeped in custom and history the nation has become an amalgam of the traditional and the modern As a result the country has become increasingly difficult to categorize How are we to represent today's Japan effectively and fairly predict its future This critical multi disciplinary collection explores the convergence of past and future in contemporary Japan Contributors comment on a wide range of economic socio cultural and political trends such as the mobilization of Japanese labour the burgeoning Ainu identity movement and the shifting place of the modern woman and conclude that despite the rapid changes many of the traditional facets of Japanese society have remained intact institutional change they assert is unlikely to occur quickly and Japan must find alternate ways to adjust to twenty first century pressures of global competition and interdependence A pleasure to read this broad volume will be welcomed by upper level undergraduates graduates and specialists in Japanese studies
