Moving The Centre The Struggle For Cultural Freedom:

An Anthology of African Cultural Studies, Volume I Keyan G. Tomaselli, Handel Kashope Wright, 2024-10-04 This volume provides an overview of fundamental or grounding themes in African Cultural Studies including the articulation of African cultural studies the issue of Africa's diaspora's African identity and identifications and media studies in Africa and its relationship with cultural studies The first of two volumes the book predominantly pulls together a rich reservoir of previously published articles from Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies mapping a long history of the field that draws from a diverse range of origins and locations especially from within Africa itself The first section of the book addresses how African cultural studies has been called for and explained both as a comprehensive continental and sometimes national discourse and as being in conversation with established global cultural studies The second section addresses the African diaspora and what might be termed diasporic African cultural studies A third principal theme explored is how African identities and identifications are articulated in African cultural studies On spatiality the volume takes a stance on the exclusive continental versus continuity conception of Africa the African diaspora is treated as contributory and its relationship to the continent as problematic while taking up continental Africa as the principal location of African cultural studies In terms of identity Blackness is taken up as the dominant but importantly not exclusive racial identity and identification of African cultural studies and gender and social class are also addressed in novel ways The book ends with an examination of the complex relationship between media studies and cultural studies This book will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of African cultural studies media and cultural studies African studies history politics sociology and social and cultural anthropology while also being of interest to those seeking an introduction to the sub field of African cultural studies

Justice for Marcus Garvey Julius Garvey, 2024-11-19 Join thought leaders fighting to win the posthumous pardon of Marcus Garvey one of the most influential figures in Black history Marcus Garvey 1887 1940 was a Black political activist journalist entrepreneur and orator who founded the Universal Negro Improvement Association and African Communities League which had a following of more than six million African descended people worldwide Despite his massive popularity this Jamaican born international leader was wrongfully sentenced to prison by the U S government on trumped up mail fraud charges While exoneration efforts began immediately and have continued since his sentencing a new groundswell movement for Garvey's posthumous pardon is underway led by his nonagenarian still spirited son Julius Garvey Edited by Julius Garvey Justice for Marcus Garvey is a collection of informative essays and personal narratives about the senior Garvey's life and work demonstrating his essential influence on current social justice movements The book features contributions from thought leaders and activists including a foreword by bestselling author Ta Nehisi Coates Contributors include Paul Coates founder director of Black Classic Press Goulda Downer president of the Caribbean American Political Action Committee C PAC Justin Hansford professor at Howard University School of Law and Maulana Karenga widely known as the creator of the holiday Kwanzaa Justice for Marcus Garvey is a tribute and rallying cry for one of the preeminent champions of Black pride and self determination African Youth in Contemporary Literature and Popular Culture Vivian Yenika-Agbaw,Lindah Mhando,2014-01-21 This book explores how African youth are depicted in contemporary literature and popular culture and discusses the different ways by which they attempt to construct personal and cultural identities through popular culture and social media outlets The contributors approach the subject from an interdisciplinary perspective looking at images in children s and adolescent literature from Africa and the African diaspora from Nollywood and Hollywood movies from popular magazines and from youth cultures encountered directly through field experiences The findings reveal that there are many stereotypes about Africa African youth and black cultures and that African youth are aware of these Since they juggle multiple identities shaped by their ethnicities race and religion it is often a challenge for them to define themselves As they also share a global youth culture that transcends these cultural markers some take advantage of media outlets to voice their concerns and participate in political struggles Others simply use these to promote their personal interests Contributors ponder the challenges involved in constructing unique identities offering ideas on how African youth are doing so successfully or not in different parts of the continent and the African diaspora and thus offer new possibilities for youth studies The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Imperialism and Anti-Imperialism Immanuel Ness,Zak

Cope,2016-04-29 The Palgrave Encyclopedia Imperialism and Anti Imperialism objectively presents the prominent themes epochal events theoretical explanations and historical accounts of imperialism from 1776 to the present It is the most historically and academically comprehensive examination of the subject to date Central American Literatures as World Literature Sophie Esch,2023-10-05 Challenging the notion that Central American literature is a marginal space within Latin American literary and world literary production this collection positions and discusses Central American literature within the recently revived debates on world literature This groundbreaking volume draws on new scholarship on global transnational postcolonial translational and sociological perspectives on the region s literature expanding and challenging these debates by focusing on the heterogenous literatures of Central America and its diasporas Contributors discuss poems testimonios novels and short stories in relation to center periphery cosmopolitan and Internationalist paradigms Central American Literatures as World Literature explores the multiple ways in which Central American literature goes beyond or against the confines of the nation state especially through the indigenous Black and migrant voices

African Media and Communication viola c. milton,Winston Mano,2025-01-17 This book provides an important set of critical reflections from a selection of foundational scholars of African media and communication studies through biographical method The book interrogates the center of mainstream academic scholarship by providing the foundational history and origins of an Africanist conceptual model while highlighting its significance globally The editors use biographical and life story interviews to critically review the respondents interpretations of their key works and arguments in relation to key moments in the field the continent and globally Though the book is focussed on recovering pioneering arguments by key thinkers in African media and communication efforts of individual academics are to be understood in the context of their work with others and within institutions that are networked locally and globally By bringing together many of the leading figures of African communication and media studies in a single volume this book provides a critical corrective to the dearth of knowledge and information about who the key thinkers are and what their key arguments theories and models for media and communication in African contexts entail As such it will be of interest to scholars of media and communications in Africa and the global south

Understanding Gender in the African Context Kurebwa, Jeffrey, 2020-04-10 One of the most significant dimensions of gender studies is that it is political It raises questions about power in society and how and why power is differentially distributed between different genders It asks questions about who has power over whom in which situations how power is exercised and how it is and can be challenged Different theories and perspectives within gender studies have different approaches to these questions and look for answers in different social processes Many debates are on going as new data is revealed and new theories are put forth Understanding Gender in the African Context is a scholarly reference that explores the complexities of the ideologies and social patterns that contribute to the field of gender studies Featuring a range of topics such as human rights feminism and social media this book is ideal for policymakers sociologists social scientists civil society organizations government officials academicians researchers and students

Spivak and Postcolonialism T. Sakhkhane, 2012-04-24 Exploring amongst other themes representations of the other strategies adopted to resist such representations the issues of identity nationalism colonialism feminism subaltern studies and the English language within the context of Empire this book projects a study of post colonialism through the work of Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak

Educating for Human Rights and Global Citizenship Ali A. Abdi, Lynette Shultz, 2009-01-01 Nearly sixty years after the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in spite of progress on some fronts we are in many cases as far away as ever from achieving an inclusive citizenship and human rights for all While human rights violations continue to affect millions across the world there are also ongoing contestations regarding citizenship In response to these and related issues the contributors to this book critique both historical and current practices and suggest several pragmatic options highlighting the role of education in attaining these noble yet unachieved objectives This book represents a welcome addition to the human rights and global citizenship literature and provides ideas for new platforms that are human rights friendly and expansively attuned toward global citizenship Book jacket

Developing Africa? Lehasa Moloi, 2024-03-12 Developing Africa New Horizons with Afrocentricity aims to contest the Eurocentric narrative of an African development discourse This book deploys the theory of Afrocentricity as an intellectual standpoint from which African thinkers should interrogate and reconceptualize the discourse of development in Africa Particularly the book argues in favour of the Afrocentric re interpretation of African history African culture and assertion of African agency as the core building wedge in the reconceptualization of the ideal African development trajectory
