BIALL Handbook of Legal Information Management Loyita Worley, 2020-07-26 The second edition of this popular handbook has been thoroughly updated by the original team of experts and some new contributors to provide current best practice guidance on the key legal information issues for every type of service Each of the chapters is updated to reflect general changes in law libraries and their users in the past seven years In particular the handbook covers new information technologies including social networking and communication New chapters also focus on the key topics of outsourcing and the impact of the 2007 Legal Services Act The second edition of this valuable handbook continues to be an important professional reference tool for managers and staff of all types of legal information services and will help them with the challenges they face in their work every day

Nigerian Legal Methods C. C. Ohuruogu, O. T. Umahi, 2013-09-27 This text is a collection of writings on assigned topics by some scholars and lecturers in the Faculty of Law at Benson Idahosa University and those invited from outside the university The idea to write a text for use in the study of legal methods for law students was borne out of the desire to present a range of updated material in this area of study The focus of this text is Nigeria The book is written in simple easy to understand language and meant essentially for law students in the first year of the five year course in Law as structured by the National Universities Commission NUC Nevertheless persons who are in need of information or education on different aspects of the Nigerian legal process will also find aspects of the text useful The contributors come from diverse backgrounds and experiences which is reflected in their styles of presentation However each has endeavoured to present the assigned topic in such a form as to enhance comprehension by the primary beneficiaries The inclusion of chapters on advocacy and mooted skills as well as examination skills and strategies makes this text unique and allows it to offer more detailed analysis than existing texts in Nigeria provide Library Classification Trends in the 21st Century Rajendra Kumbhar,2011-11-18 Library Classification Trends in the 21st Century traces development in and around library classification as reported in literature published in the first decade of the 21st century It reviews literature published on various aspects of library classification including modern applications of classification such as internet resource discovery automatic book classification text categorization modern manifestations of classification such as taxonomies folksonomies and ontologies and interoperable systems enabling crosswalk The book also features classification education and an exploration of relevant topics Covers all aspects of library classification It is the only book that reviews literature published over a decade s time span 1999 2009 Well thought chapterization which is in tune with the LIS and classification curriculum

Legal Information: what it is and where to find it Peter Clinch,2003-09-02 The guide clearly and concisely shows how to source legal information and how to deal with legal databases and the need it now demands of the marketplace This second edition has been fully revised and updated and will include for the first time Internet addresses for the leading law information sites both free and subscriber only and information on the law publications Internet sites of the newly formed Scottish Parliament and Welsh Assembly Contents Introduction Finding and using a law collection The literature of law in the British Isles The literature of law in selected countries outside the British Isles Contacts International Encyclopedia of Information and Library Science John Feather,Paul Sturges,2003-09-02 The International Encyclopedia of Information and Library Science was published to widespread acclaim in 1996 and has become the major reference work in the field This eagerly awaited new edition has been fully revised and updated to take full account of the many and radical changes which have taken place since the Encyclopedia was originally conceived With nearly 600 entries written by a global team of over 150 contributors the subject matter ranges from mobile library services provided by camel and donkey transport to search engines portals and the World Wide Web The new edition retains the successful structure of the first with an alphabetical organization providing the basic framework of a coherent collection of connected entries Conceptual entries explore and explicate all the major issues theories and activities in information and library science such as the economics of information and information management A wholly new entry on information systems and enhanced entries on the information professions and the information society are key features of this new edition Topical entries deal with more specific subjects such as collections management and information services for ethnic minorities New or completely revised entries include a group of entries on information law and a collection of entries on the Internet and the World Wide Web Indexing Pat F. Booth,2013-02-06 No detailed description available for Indexing Introduction to Cataloging and Classification Daniel N. Joudrey,Arlene G. Taylor,David P. Miller,2015-09-29 A new edition of this best selling textbook reintroduces the topic of library cataloging from a fresh modern perspective Not many books merit an eleventh edition but this popular text does Newly updated Introduction to Cataloging and Classification provides an introduction to descriptive cataloging based on contemporary standards explaining the basic tenets to readers without previous experience as well as to those who merely want a better understanding of the process as it exists today The text opens with the foundations of cataloging then moves to specific details and subject matter such as Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records FRBR Functional Requirements for Authority Data FRAD the International Cataloging Principles ICP and RDA Unlike other texts the book doesn't presume a close familiarity with the MARC bibliographic or authorities formats ALA's Anglo American Cataloging Rules 2nd Edition revised AACR2R or the International Standard Bibliographic Description ISBD Subject access to library materials is covered in sufficient depth to make the reader comfortable with the principles and practices of subject cataloging and classification In addition the book introduces MARC BIBFRAME and other approaches used to communicate and display bibliographic data Discussions of formatting presentation and administrative issues complete the book questions useful for review and study appear at the end of each chapter
