Mr Bedford The Muses:

Mr. Bedford and the Muses Gail Godwin, 1987 The Making of a Writer Gail Godwin, 2007-12-18 Gail Godwin was twenty four years old and working as a waitress in the North Carolina mountains when she wrote I want to be everybody who is great I want to create everything that has ever been created It is a declaration that only a wildly ambitious young writer would make in the privacy of her journal In the heady days of her literary apprenticeship Godwin kept a daily chronicle of her dreams and desires her travels love affairs struggles and breakthroughs Now at the urging of her friend Joyce Carol Oates Godwin has distilled these early journals which run from 1961 to 1963 to their brilliant and charming essence The Making of a Writer opens during the feverish period following the breakup of Godwin s first marriage and her stint as a reporter for The Miami Herald Aware that she is entering one of the great turning points of her life as she prepares to move to Europe Godwin writes of the 100 different hungers that consume her on the eve of departure A whirlwind trip to New York the passengers and their stories on board the SS Oklahoma the shock of her first encounters with Danish customs and Danish men Godwin wonderfully conveys the excitement of a writer embracing a welter of new experience After a long dark Scandinavian winter and a gloriously romantic interlude in the Canary Islands Godwin moves to London and embarks on the passionate engagements that will inspire some of her finest stories She records the pleasures of soaking in the human drama on long rambles through the London streets and the torment of lonely Sundays spent wrestling these impressions into prose She shares her passion for Henry James Marcel Proust Lawrence Durrell Thomas Wolfe and her terror of facing twenty six with nothing to show but a rejected novel and a stack of debts I do not feel like a failure Godwin insists as she sits down yet again to the empty page I will keep writing harder than ever Like Virginia Woolf s A Writer s Diary Gail Godwin s journals brim with the urgency and wit of a brilliant literary mind meeting the world head on An inspired and inspiring volume The Making of a Writer opens a shining window into the life and craft of a great writer just coming into her own American Women Writing Fiction Mickey Pearlman, 2021-03-17 American literature is no longer the refuge of the solitary hero Like the society it mirrors it is now a far richer many faceted explication of a complicated and diverse society racially culturally and ethnically interwoven and at the same time fractured and fractious Ten women writing fiction in America today Toni Cade Bambara Joan Didion Louise Erdrich Gail Godwin Mary Gordon Alison Lurie Joyce Carol Oates Jayne Anne Phillips Susan Fromberg Schaeffer and Mary Lee Settle represent that geographic ethnic and racial diversity that is distinctively American Their differing perspectives on literature and the American experience have produced Erdrich s stolid North Dakota plainswomen Didion s sun baked dreamers and screamers the urban ethnics Irish Jewish and black of Gordon Schaeffer and Bambara Oates s small town often violent neurotics Lurie s intellectual sophisticates and the southern survivors and victims male and female of Phillips Settle and Godwin The ten original essays in this collection focus on the traditional themes of identity memory family and enclosure that pervade the fiction of these writers The fictional women who emerge here as these critics show are often caught in the interwoven strands of memory perceive literal and emotional space as entrapping find identity elusive and frustrating and experience the interweaving of silence solitude and family in complex patterns Each essay in this collection is followed by bibliographies of works by and about the writer in question that will be invaluable resources for scholars and general readers alike Here is a readable critical discussion of ten important contemporary novelists who have broadened the pages of American literature to reflect more clearly the people we are
