

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth, on this continent, a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation or any nation so conceived and so dedicated can long endure. We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. But, in the great battle-ground, we can dedicate a corner as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live.

But, in the great battle-ground, we can dedicate a corner as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live.
