Mr Personality Pro And Talk Pieces:

Mr. Personality Mark Singer, 2005-07-12 A superb collection Mr Personality brings together the best of Mark Singer's profiles and Talk of the Town pieces from The New Yorker 1977-1989. In these thirty-three witty and offbeat pieces, Singer presents a slice of New York and its citizens in a way that only he can. From prolific filmmaker Errol Morris and a family of superintendents to one of the last great zipper fixers, a court buff in Brooklyn, and Mr Personality himself, these remarkable portraits offer something for every reader. Describer's Dictionary David Grambs, Ellen S. Levine, 2015-01-26 The unmatched guide and perfect gift for stymied scribes and working wordsmiths everywhere, now expanded and updated. A singular and indispensable reference tool, The Describer's Dictionary now expanded and updated has served for over twenty years as the go-to resource for writers who are determined to capture the world in just the right words. The dictionary uses a unique reverse definition-to-term format that makes it easy to zero in on the term you're seeking. Turn to the new section on sensory impressions for example to find vivid terms for loud or jarring, such as grating, harsh, piercing, blaring, thunderous, cacophonous, and raucous. And at the end of each section, dozens of illustrative passages by notable fiction and nonfiction authors, including Donna Tartt, Michael Lewis, Zadie Smith, Khaled Hosseini, and Paul Theroux, bring the terminology to life. New in this edition: Hundreds of additional definitions, terms, and synonyms; Brand new categories including Physical States and Symptoms, Temperament and Behavior, Rooms and Interior Spaces, Weather and Forces of Nature, and The Solar System. Over 400 new quotations from books, periodicals, and digital media by established and rising literary stars. An index of the more than 600 authors quoted in the book. Profile Pieces Sue Joseph, Richard Lance Keeble, 2015-10-14 This book examines the history, theory, and journalistic practice of profile writing. Profiles and the practice of writing them are of increasing interest to scholars of journalism because conflicts between the interviewer and the subject exemplify the changing nature of journalism itself. While the subject often, through the medium of their press representative, struggles to retain control of the interview space, the journalist seeks to subvert it. This interesting and multi-layered interaction, however, has rarely been subject to critical scrutiny, partly because profiles have traditionally been regarded as public relations exercises or as soft journalism. However, chapters in this volume reveal not only that profiling has historically taken many different forms, but that the idea of the interview as a contested space has applications beyond the subject of celebrated individuals. The volume looks at the profile's historical beginnings, at the contemporary manufacture of celebrity versus the ordinary, at profiling communities, countries, and movements, at profiling the destitute, at sporting personalities, and finally at profiling and trauma. True Stories Norman Sims, Medill School of Journalism, 2007 Journalism in the twentieth century was marked by the rise of literary journalism. Sims traces more than a century of its history, examining the cultural connections, competing journalistic schools of thought, and innovative writers that have given literary journalism its power. Seminal examples of the genre provide ample context and background for the study of this style of journalism. Listening to

Others Natalia Brizuela, Krista Brune, 2024-05-01 Listening to Others is the first English language volume dedicated solely to the vast corpus of the preeminent Brazilian director Eduardo Coutinho 1933-2014 From his early work in the 1960s to his last posthumous film in 2015 Coutinho transformed documentary filmmaking in Brazil and beyond Described as an informal linguist and savage anthropologist Coutinho filmed encounters with people different from himself that foregrounded their voices and his role as an attentive listener creating a cinema of listening This collection brings together leading scholars of film literature visual culture Brazilian studies and Latin American studies from the United States and Latin America to examine both Coutinho's masterpieces and less studied films Using a range of approaches the contributors invite new ways of understanding the documentarian's trajectory and importance as his work transformed in response to dictatorship democratization and other political social and technological changes over the course of five decades The volume also features original translations of a selection of Coutinho's writings and key texts by Brazilian critics to offer a historical perspective on his filmmaking and its reception

Language Contact and the Future of English Ian Mackenzie, 2017-12-15 This book reflects on the future of the English language as used by native speakers speakers of nativized New Englishes and users of English as a lingua franca ELF The volume begins by outlining the current position of English in the world and accounts for the differences among native and nativized varieties and ELF usages It offers a historical perspective on the impact of language contact on English and discusses whether the lexicogrammatical features of New Englishes and ELF are shaped by imperfect learning or deliberate language change The book also considers the consequences of writing in a second language and questions the extent to which non-native English speaking academics and researchers should be required to conform to Anglo patterns of text organization and English Academic Discourse The book then examines the converse effect of English on other languages through bilingualism and translation This volume is essential reading for students and scholars in English language sociolinguistics language acquisition and language policy
