Mark S. Byrnes

Mr Trumans War:

Mr. Truman's War J. Robert Moskin,1996 In his first three months in office President Harry Truman was forced to face the greatest challenges ever to confront a world leader including the decision to drop the A bomb the beginning of the Cold War and more Now the former foreign editor for Look magazine presents for the first time the dramatic story of Truman s first five months as president American Radical D. D. Guttenplan,2024-05-01 Popular Front columnist and New Deal propagandist Fearless opponent of McCarthyism and feared scourge of official liars Enterprising independent reporter and avid amateur classicist As D D Guttenplan puts it in his compelling book I F Stone did what few in his profession could he always thought for himself America s most celebrated investigative journalist himself remains something of a mystery however Born Isidor Feinstein in Philadelphia raised in rural New Jersey by the age of 25 this college drop out was already an influential newsman and enjoying extraordinary access to key figures in New Deal Washington and the friendship of important artists in New York It is Guttenplan s wisdom to see that the key to Stone s achievements throughout his singular career and not just in his celebrated I F Stone s Weekly lay in the force and passion of his political commitments Stone s calm forensic yet devastating reports on American politics and institutions sprang from a radical faith in the long term prospects for American democracy His testimony on the legacy of American politics from the New Deal and World War II to the era of the civil rights struggles the Vietnam War and beyond amounts to as vivid a record of those times as we are likely to have Guttenplan s lively provocative book makes clear why so many of his pronouncements have acquired the force of prophecy
