100 American Crime Writers S. Powell, 2012-08-07 100 American Crime Writers features discussion and analysis of the lives of crime writers and their key works examining the developments in American crime writing from the Golden Age to hardboiled detective fiction. Prison Writing Julian Broadhead, Laura Kerr, 2000-10-31 A collection of writing by people in prison and connected to prisons creative and challenging one of two special Waterside Press editions. A remarkable anthology which will interest everyone concerned with the fate of prisoners and anxious to see their conditions improved

Michael McMullan Justice of the Peace This fascinating and very readable collection of fact fiction and verse is the fifteenth issue edited and produced by two probation officers from Sheffield. We are fortunate that they have found a new publisher in Waterside Press to continue giving prisoners and others an opportunity to do something which all writers crave: find an audience to communicate their feelings and experiences. The contributors give deeply personal insights into the nature of their world and prove that imagination and talent are incapable of being destroyed if people are ready to develop them. This anthology deserves to be read by everyone who is interested in new writers experimenting with the development of their talent. Each piece is different and compelling

David Underhill The Magistrate

The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented. He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre. Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume; much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected. Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form. Several others have been unavailable for a number of years. Of special note are Anthony Boucher's Best Picks for the Year. Boucher, one of the major mystery reviewers of all time, reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle, Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times. From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher's Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher's death in 1968. This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors. Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction

Prose and Cons D. Quentin Miller, 2005-10-04 As the United States prison population has exploded over the past 30 years a rich, provocative and ever-increasing body of literature has emerged, written either by prisoners or by those who have come in close contact with them. Unlike earlier prison writings contemporary literature moves in directions that are neither uniformly ideological nor uniformly political. It has become increasingly personal and the obsessive subject is the way identity is shaped, compromised, altered or obliterated by incarceration. The 14

essays in this work examine the last 30 years of prison literature from a wide variety of perspectives The first four essays examine race and ethnicity the social categories most evident in U S prisons The three essays in the next section explore gender a prominent subject of prison literature highlighted by the absolute separation of male and female inmates Section three provides three essays focused on the part ideology plays in prison writings The four essays in section four consider how aesthetics and language are used seeking to define the qualities of the literature and to determine some of the reasons it exists
