Mr. Denning Drives North Alec Coppel, 1950 Sam Wanamaker Diana Devlin, 2019-06-13 Actor Director Visionary

The fascinating life of Sam Wanamaker is explored for the first time in this biography by Diana Devlin who worked closely with Wanamaker during the last twenty years of his life Sam Wanamaker 1909 1993 is best known as the man who spent the last twenty five years of his life campaigning to reconstruct Shakespeare's Globe near its original site in London Born in the USA he trained as an actor in Chicago and began his career during the golden age of radio drama before moving on to Broadway A vocal left wing activist Wanamaker moved to the UK during the turbulent era of the anti Communist witch hunts Having crossed the Atlantic he carved a successful international career as actor producer and director He directed the opening production at the Sydney Opera House With his staunch sense of purpose he made as many enemies as friends charismatic and persuasive he was also stubborn and domineering But above all he was a man of great vision and it was that vision that inspired many to help make his dream of Shakespeare's Globe come into being which opened to much fanfare in 1997

John Mills and British Cinema Gill Plain, 2006-03-23 Although his film career extended from the early days of sound to the British New Wave and beyond Sir John Mills is nonetheless remembered as the archetypal hero of the Second World War Regarded as an English everyman his performances crossed the class divide and in his easy transition from below decks to above he came to represent a newly democratic masculine ideal But what was this exemplary masculinity and what became of it in the aftermath of war John Mills and British Cinema asks how was it possible for an actor to embody national identity and by exploring the cultural contexts in which Mills and the nation became synonymous the book offers a new perspective on 40 years of cinema and social change Through detailed analysis of a wide range of classic British films John Mills and British Cinema exposes the shifting constructions of national masculinity arguing that the screen persona of the actor is a fundamental and often overlooked dimension of British cinema
