Mr Massey The American Meat Trust Some:

Mr. Massey and the American Meat Trust P. S. O'Connor, 1973 Taste, Trade and Technology Richard Perren, 2017-09-29 Focusing on the interactions of producers sellers and consumers of meat across the world Richard Perren elucidates aspects of the evolution of the international economy and the part played by the investment of capital and the enterprise of individuals The study utilises the government reports and papers issued by all countries involved in the meat trade including North and South America Australia New Zealand and Britain Beginning in the nineteenth century allows a comprehensive analysis of how an efficient meat exporting industry was built The industry required investment which was part of the general process of economic development Perren focuses on the nature of the firms involved with the trade the part played in the industry s development by foreign investment and the encouragement given by governments Close attention is also paid to the stimulus of war the impact of animal health and food hygiene regulations on producers and the competing demands of interest groups involved in the food businesses By taking an historical as well as a contemporary approach the book contributes to the current discussion on the effectiveness of animal and meat inspection in identifying farm livestock diseases such as tuberculosis and BSE This study advances our knowledge of the process of food distribution in the industrialising and post industrial economies and leads to a comprehensive understanding of an important component of the international food chain

The 20th Century Go-N Frank N. Magill, 2014-03-05 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who s who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual s life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual s place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography

Markets in their Place Russell Prince, Matthew Henry, Carolyn Morris, Aisling Gallagher, Stephen FitzHerbert, 2021-07-27 Markets are usually discussed in abstract terms as an economic organizing principle a generalized alternative to government planning or even as powerful actors in their own right able to shape local and national economic destinies But markets are not abstract Even as the idea of the market seduces politicians around the world to take advantage of their abstract qualities they constantly run up against material reality Markets are always somewhere in place and it is in place that the smooth theories of markets falter and fail More than simply being embedded in particular places markets necessarily emerge in the various political social cultural and environmental relations that exist in and between places Markets shape places but the reverse is also true This collection of essays approaches markets from the ground up and from a part of the world often still regarded as peripheral to global capitalism the South Pacific With a wide variety of case studies including on indigenous economies childcare agriculture wine electricity metering finance education and housing the authors show how complex local social and cultural politics matter to how markets are made within and between places and the insights that can be gleaned from studying markets in this part of the world They explore the way superficially similar markets work out differently in different places and why as well as examining how market relations are constructed in places outside and on the edges of the centres of Western capitalism and what this says back to how markets are understood in those centres The book will be of particular interest to scholars and students working in and between economic geography cultural economy political economy economic sociology and more Parliamentary Debates New Zealand.
