works by men such as William Butler Yeats's poem An Irish Airman Foresees His Death 1919 which relies on a male perspective a pilot contemplates his forthcoming flight his duty to his country and his life in combat But works by Djuna Barnes H D and Gertrude Stein set in wartime reveal experiences and views of war markedly different from those of male writers They write women and their bodies into their texts thus creating space for female war writing insisting on female presence in wartime and perhaps most significantly critiquing war and patriarchal politics often in devastating fashion Goodspeed Chadwick begins with Barnes who in her surrealist novel Nightwood 1936 emphasizes the actual perversity of war by placing it in contrast to the purported perverse and deviant behavior of her main characters In her epic poem Trilogy 1944 1946 H D validates female suffering and projects a feminist spiritual worldview that fosters healing from the ravages of war Stein for her part in her experimental novel Mrs Reynolds 1952 and her long love poem Lifting Belly 1953 captures her experience of the everyday reality of war on the home front within the domestic economy of her household In these works the female body stands as the primary textual marker or symbol of female identity an insistence on women's presence in both the text and in the world outside the book The strategies employed by Barnes H D and Stein in these texts serve to produce a new kind of writing Goodspeed Chadwick reveals one that ineluctably constructs a female identity within and authorship of the war narrative
