Muerte Del Cine La:

Las muertes del cine colombiano Oswaldo Osorio, 2018-10-11 Las muertes del cine colombiano da cuenta de intentos múltiples y aun divergentes de inventar un cine nacional y llama la atención sobre un rasgo característico de nuestra historia fílmica la discontinuidad en la producción y las dificultades de formación de una industria cinematográfica nacional a lo largo del siglo xx A través de una historia que es al tiempo panorámica y detallada su autor recorre desde las primeras obras del cine silente pasando por los inicios del cine sonoro y por las variables y tensiones de la producción cinematográfica entre lo industrial lo marginal y lo estatal en la segunda parte del siglo xx hasta el dinamismo de la producción cinematográfica en los años que corren del presente siglo Y es precisamente la actualidad el momento fundamental de esta historia uno sin parangón en el que ya no se leen las muertes sucesivas de la industria cinematográfica de la centuria pasada sino las resonancias y las variables en las que ha insistido el cine colombiano en sus sucesivos renacimientos lo popular y el melodrama el nacionalismo y la identidad lo rural y lo urbano lo social y lo político las coproducciones En este libro la crítica historiográfica desde la perspectiva de la historia cultural se da la mano con teorías y conceptos de otras disciplinas para plantear relaciones novedosas entre el pasado y el presente y se conjuga con un análisis riguroso de la filmografía nacional que tiene en cuenta sus componentes estéticos y los pone en diálogo con fenómenos sociales y culturales más amplios

Transition Cinema Jessica L. Stites Mor, 2012-05-27 In Transition Cinema Jessica Stites Mor documents the critical role filmmakers the film industry and state regulators played in Argentina's volatile and unfinished transition from dictatorship to democracy She shows how during periods of both military repression and civilian rule the state moved to control political film production and its content distribution and exhibition She also reveals the strategies that the industry independent filmmakers and film activists employed to comply with or circumvent these regulations Stites Mor traces three distinct generations of transition cinema each defined by a seminal event that shifted the political economy of national filmmaking The first generation of filmmakers witnessed and participated in civil uprisings such as the Cordobazo in 1969 and faced waves of repression violence and censorship This generation gave rise to vibrant underground exhibitions and film clubs and eventually became symbolically linked to the Peronist Left and radical militancy Following the 1983 return to civilian rule a second generation of political filmmakers emerged at the center of public debates when Buenos Aires became the locus for state level cultural programs to address human rights and collective memory Building on that legacy a third generation of filmmakers explored new modes of activist and political filmmaking aided by digital technology They pioneered new genres such as the street phenomenon of cine piquetero and introduced resistance politics and social movements into highly visible public spaces In this captivating work Stites Mor examines how social movements political actors filmmakers and government and industry institutions all became deeply enmeshed in the project of Argentina's transition cinema She demonstrates how film emerged as the chronicler of political struggles in a dialogue with the past present and future whose
