anthropological literary and political dimensions the contributors revise important ideas in the debate over individualism using political and feminist theory and examine the different ways in which their writings embody engage and critique the official narratives generated by America's culture

Satire in Narrative Frank Palmeri, 2014-08-04 Virtually all theories of satire define it as a criticism of contemporary society Some argue that satire criticizes the present in favor of a standard of values that has been superseded and thus that satire is generally backward looking and conservative While this is often true of poetic satire in this study Frank Palmeri asserts that narrative satire performs a different function that it parodies both the established view of the world and that of its opponents offering its own distinctive critical perspective This theory of satire builds on the idea of dialogical parody in the work of Russian theorist Mikhail Bakhtin while revising Bakhtin's estimate of carnival In Palmeri's view the carnivalesque offers only an inverted mirror image of authoritative discourse while parodic narrative satire suggests an alternative to both the official world and its inverted opposite Palmeri applies this theory of narrative satire to five works of world literature each of which has generated sharp controversy about the genre to which it rightly belongs Petronius Satyricon Jonathan Swift's A Tale of a Tub Edward Gibbon's Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire Herman Melville's The Confidence Man and Thomas Pynchon's The Crying of Lot 49 He analyzes the features that link these works and shows how the changing pairs of alternatives that are parodied in these satires reflect changes in the terms of social and cultural oppositions Satire in Narrative will appeal to comparatists specialists in eighteenth century and American literature and others interested in theories of genre and the relations between literary forms and social history

Seven Modes of Uncertainty C. Namwali Serpell, 2014-04-30 Literature is uncertain Literature is good for us These two ideas are often taken for granted But what is the relationship between literature's capacity to perplex and its ethical value Seven Modes of Uncertainty contends that literary uncertainty is crucial to ethics because it pushes us beyond the limits of our experience

Radical Hope in the Novels of Thomas Pynchon Phillip Grayson, 2022-09-09 Radical Hope in the Novels of Thomas Pynchon The Moon and Meteor provides a careful consideration of the author's career examining the ways in which the subversion of his early novels feeds into the radical optimism of his later works The book's first half explores the author's use of the image of the Moon as a romanticized ideal that is irreparably corrupted by and corruptly manipulated by forces of worldly power The second half takes up the meteor as an image of impending violence that has yet to be fully realized finding in the unlikely possibility of that violence being somehow averted a reckless sort of hope This foolhardy but nonetheless real hope to escape from violent oppressive structures and forge a real ethical obligation to the other marks the development of these paired metaphors and through them Pynchon introduces the possibility however slight that literature with its powerfully intimate relationship with consciousness may at least sustain that hope

Fictions Inc. Ralph Clare, 2014-09-11 Fictions Inc explores how depictions of the corporation in American literature film and popular culture have changed over time Beginning with perhaps the most famous depiction of a corporation Frank Norris's The Octopus Ralph Clare traces this figure as it shifts from monster to man from force to individual and from American industry to multinational Other Clare examines a variety of texts that span the second half of the twentieth century and beyond including novels by Thomas Pynchon William Gaddis Don DeLillo Richard Powers and Joshua Ferris films such as Network Ghostbusters Gung Ho Office Space and Michael Clayton and assorted artifacts of contemporary media such as television's The Office and the comic strips Life Is Hell and Dilbert Paying particular attention to the rise of neoliberalism the emergence of biopolitics and the legal status of corporate bodies Fictions Inc shows that representations of corporations have come to serve whether directly or indirectly as symbols for larger economic concerns often too vast or complex to comprehend Whether demonized or lionized the corporation embodies American anxieties about these current conditions and ongoing fears about the viability of a capitalist system

Postmodernism and Notions of National Difference Geoffrey Lord,2024-08-26 Postmodernism and Notions of National Difference examines the critical construction of postmodern fiction raising the question of whether the construction of postmodernism has sufficiently accounted for national difference Geoffrey Lord argues that current meta national conceptions of postmodernism need serious reconsideration to take national cultural contexts into account Through a comparative investigation of the theoretical debate literary traditions and close textual reading of a number of postmodern texts Lord makes a persuasive case for his broad claim that national cultural differences are more persistent and powerful than usually allowed by established theories of postmodernity which claim a general collapse of traditional cultural orders and the meta narratives that justify them
