Memorial author Laura Brandon explores some of the reasons why this may have been the case At various times throughout its history the war art collection has receded from and re emerged in the nation s collective consciousness Nevertheless as an invaluable part of the official record of war in Canada it is profoundly significant Brandon argues that the value of the collection lies less in its artistic merit and more in its role as a site of memory Art or Memorial seeks to illuminate Canadian war art s sometimes hidden presence in the nation s memory and to show through both its presence and its absence how it helped to shape and will continue to influence how we remember as a nation

Decolonial Animal Ethics in Linda Hogan's Poetry and Prose Malgorzata Poks, 2023-07-28 Decolonial Animal Ethics in Linda Hogan s Poetry and Prose is a plea for an urgent redefinition of human animal relations on the basis of a nonanthropocentric animal ethic embraced by premodern Indigenous communities but depreciated by coloniality Without decolonial revisions of animal subjectivity and personhood the animal genocide can never truly stop It is also a close reading of Linda Hogan s poetry and prose in search of the coordinates of a decolonized animal ethic which would foster interspecies becoming Having defined the recurring tropes motifs and attitudes that underpin Hogan s treatment of nonhuman animals the book moves on to trace the way she depicts the human animal bond especially in the face of the destructive anthropogenic impact The major questions guiding the analysis of Hogan s oeuvre are as follows who are the animals we share our earthly lives with what can they teach us about ourselves how can animals guide us toward more sustainable futures and what are the conditions of possibility of an interspecies human animal thriving This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Indigenous Studies Decolonial Studies Animal Studies Ecocriticism Anthropocene Studies as well as readers of Linda Hogan s literary works

Urban Politics Bernard H. Ross, Myron A. Levine, 2011-08-10 This popular text mixes the best classic theory and research on urban politics with the most recent developments in urban and metropolitan affairs Its very balanced and realistic approach helps students to understand the nature of urban politics and the difficulty of finding effective solutions in a suburban and global age The eighth edition provides a comprehensive review and analysis of urban policy under the Obama administration and brand new coverage of sustainable urban development A new chapter on globalization and its impact on cities brings the history of urban development up to date and a focus on the politics of local economic development underscores how questions of economic development have come to dominate the local arena The book traces the changing style of community participation including the emergence of CDCs BIDs and other new style service organizations It analyzes the impacts of the New Regionalism the New Urbanism and much more at an approachable level The eighth edition is significantly shorter and more affordable than previous editions and the entire text has been thoroughly rewritten to engage students Boxed case studies of prominent recent and current urban development efforts provide material for class discussion and concluding material demonstrates the tradeoff between more ideal and more pragmatic urban politics Source material provides Internet addresses for further research

Canadian Periodical Index ,2000 Women Who Invented the Sixties Steve

Golin,2022-09-20 While there were many protests in the 1950s against racial segregation economic inequality urban renewal McCarthyism and the nuclear buildup the movements that took off in the early 1960s were qualitatively different They were sustained not momentary they were national not just local they changed public opinion rather than being ignored Women Who Invented the Sixties tells the story of how four women helped define the 1960s and made a lasting impression for decades to follow In 1960 Ella Baker played the key role in the founding of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee which became an essential organization for students during the civil rights movement and the model for the antiwar and women s movements In 1961 Jane Jacobs published The Death and Life of Great American Cities changing the shape of urban planning irrevocably In 1962 Rachel Carson published Silent Spring creating the modern environmental movement And in 1963 Betty Friedan wrote The Feminine Mystique which sparked second wave feminism and created lasting changes for women Their four separate interventions helped together to end the 1950s and invent the 1960s Women Who Invented the Sixties situates each of these four women in the 1950s Baker s early activism with the NAACP and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference Jacobs s work with Architectural Forum and her growing involvement in neighborhood protest Carson s conservation efforts and publications and Friedan s work as a labor journalist and the discrimination she faced before exploring their contributions to the 1960s and the movements they each helped shape Index to Black
