Pathways To Multicultural Counseling Competence A Developmental Journey:

Pathways to Multicultural Counseling Competence Bea Wehrly, 1995 Using this book's process approach to developing multicultural awareness knowledge and skills you'll examine yourself as a racial and cultural being and learn how to develop the competence you need for successful multicultural counseling. You'll find nine current racial and ethnic identity development models as well as guidelines you can use in applying each to multicultural counseling. A lifespan approach to ethnic identity formation including a unique section on the ethnic identity development of children. Guidelines for cross cultural counseling of people of color by whites and cross cultural counseling of whites by people of color. Multicultural counseling guidelines for the Counseling Practicum student and counseling intern as well as for the Counseling Practicum supervisor and supervisors of counseling interns. The latest conceptual developments in the field of multicultural counseling integrated with case studies including the groundbreaking work of Phinney, Cross, Helms and many others. Examples, exercises, case studies and vignettes that will help you develop your multicultural counseling competence. A chapter describing multicultural counseling in 22 countries and comprehensive coverage of the history of multicultural counseling in the United States.

Handbook of Multicultural Competencies in Counseling and Psychology Donald B. Pope-Davis, Hardin L.K. Coleman, William Ming Liu, Rebecca L. Toporek, 2003-07-23 Cultural differences affect the way people think, feel, and act. In an increasingly diverse society, multicultural competency in research and counseling is not merely a matter of political correctness. It is a matter of scientific and professional responsibility. Handbook of Multicultural Competencies in Counseling and Psychology is the first book to offer the theoretical background, practical knowledge, and training strategies needed to achieve multicultural competence. Focusing on a wide range of professional settings, editors Donald B. Pope-Davis, Hardin L.K. Coleman, William Ming Liu, and Rebecca L. Toporek provide a compendium of the latest research related to multicultural competency and the hands-on framework to develop specialized multicultural practices. Promoting an appreciation of cultural differences, this innovative text includes: A review of major measures of multicultural competency. An analysis of popular empirically supported treatments within the schema of multicultural competency. Information on multicultural competencies and accreditation. An overview of ethical implications. Teaching strategies to achieve multicultural competency. Handbook of Multicultural Competencies in Counseling and Psychology provides a comprehensive foundation for understanding and integrating multiculturalism in all areas of professional practice. Offering directions for growth and development, the editors and a distinguished group of contributors explore emerging issues within the field. An indispensable resource for psychologists, social workers, school counselors, and teachers, this handbook is also an ideal supplementary text for students in counseling and clinical practice courses.
