Pathways To Re Creating Religious Communities:

Pathways to Re-Creating Religious Communities Patricia Wittberg, 1996 Religious life has always been an essential and dynamic component of the church Religious communities historically have met the needs of the surrounding society in education the arts medical care and social work But why do we need religious communities now What purpose do they serve within the church and within society Patricia Wittberg offers some practical and prophetic answers There are four basic questions that a religious community must answer if it is to survive and grow in the twenty first century What is our fundamental reason for existing as a community What distinguishes members from non members How will we live out our fundamental purpose in daily life What resources do we need and where can they be found Using the metaphor of a journey this book suggests ways of addressing these questions based on studies of other religious communities past and present Catholic and those of other religions The author also identifies pitfalls that commonly deter new communities and suggests how these pitfalls may be avoided Included is a selection of journey stories that present some fictional founding and refounding journeys these can serve as starting points for brainstorming by religious communities interested in refounding themselves This is a hopeful popularly written book that will appeal not only to all religious but to general readers as well since it has great importance for the life of the entire church BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Within and Without Michael John Cunningham, 2003 A Visual Approach to the Study of Religious Orders Marcin Jewdokimow, Thomas Quartier, OSB, 2019-05-01 A Visual Approach to the Study of Religious Orders applies visual methods to the exploration of various facets of religious life such as everyday lived experience contemporary monastic identity or monastic architecture Presenting a series of visual essays it treats images not as simple illustrations but as an autonomous form of expression capable of unveiling vital and developmental layers of experience while inviting readers to examine and interpret the data themselves The first book of its kind it brings together case studies from various locations across Europe to demonstrate what the use of visual methodologies can contribute to social scientific research on religious orders As such it will appeal to scholars and students of sociology religious studies and theology and anyone with interests in religious orders Selling All Sandra Marie Schneiders, 2001 An examination of the internal reality of contemporary religious life particularly that of ministerial women religious in the first world setting through the focusing lenses of commitment consecrated celibacy and community The Evolution of a Vow Judith Schaefer, 2009 For centuries the vow of obedience has been at the heart of religious life With the renewal efforts of Vatican II the vow has been dramatically restructured but not theologically re envisioned The Evolution of a Vow Obedience as Decision Making in Communion addresses the changes in the vow and proposes a renewed theology that supports the living out of obedience in the twenty first century Obedience in communion as a theological proposal invites vowed religious to create a pattern of limitless listening that everywhere seeks the call of God to communion Against the horizon of communion obedience becomes the singular thread of grace by which vowed religious become who they are called to be Encyclopedia of Monasticism William M. D., 2013-03 This book is a meta analysis of the relationship of margin and mission of faith based hospitals in Allegheny County Pennsylvania to their beginnings and endings It reviews the various local state and federal events and factors that impacted these hospitals during their growth and decline from 1847 through 2008 Most importantly the book shares the courage hardships and perseverance of the founders of these institutions many of whom were women as they responded to one crisis after another but never gave up their commitment to serve the poor and sick of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County Exploring the Future of Christian Monasticisms Greg Peters, 2020-01-15 The institution of monasticism in the Christian Church is in general decline at least in so called first world nations Though there are many reasons for this monastic leaders are confronted by the reality of fewer communities monks and nuns nonetheless At the same time many younger Christians are rediscovering the rich heritage of the monastic tradition Though they themselves might not be called to join a traditional monastery they are eager to appropriate monastic practices in their own lives This had led to a movement known as the new monasticism or secular monasticism Despite lacking a unified vision and any central organization these new secular monastics are attempting in their own ways to carry on the tradition and practices of Christian monasticism As well there is a movement within historical Christian monasteries to pour new wine into old wineskins Traditional forms of monasticism are also generally flourishing in developing nations breathing new life into monasticism This volume looks at the current monastic landscape to assess where monasticism stands and to imagine ways in which it will grow in the future leading not only to a renewed Christian monasticism but to new monasticisms Religious Life in a New Millennium Volume One Sandra M.
