Patience And Power Grace For The First World:

Patience and Power Jean-Marc Laporte, 1988 Evelyn Underhill Annice Callahan, 1997 This book explores Evelyn Underhill's spirituality for daily living by describing aspects of her life and writings that are relevant for contemporary Christians in their daily living. It combines scholarly research and pastoral applications. The first part focuses on three influences on her life: experiences and images, her study of the mystics, and her work with spiritual guides. The second part discusses Underhill's spirituality for daily living based on a study of her letters, retreats, and other spiritual writings. The third part presents her legacy for the third millennium: her study of mysticism, her spiritual guidance, and her spirituality for daily living. This work highlights aspects of her life with which readers may identify, for example, her own return to the Anglican communion after fourteen years, her ecumenical dialogue with the Orthodox church, and her lifelong attraction to the mystical and sacramental aspect of Roman Catholicism, her study of Sufi mystics bringing her into interfaith dialogue, her pacifist stance in World War II, and her prophetic contribution to the Anglican church as a woman, spiritual director, retreat preacher, theologian, spiritual writer, and spiritual resource for today.

Radical Gratitude Mary Jo Leddy, 2014-07-30 The guide to attaining the gratitude that frees our spirit helps us to appreciate more deeply family, community, the earth, and ourselves. Back cover

A Feast for Hungry Souls Susan Muto, 2020-05-29 Winner of a first place award in spirituality from the Catholic Media Association. Renowned scholar Susan Muto presents her spiritual legacy with a rich introduction to thirty Christian masters. These voices from the ancient, medieval, and modern Church have been the focus of Muto's work for more than forty years and the trusted guides of her own spiritual life. Masters such as Benedict of Nursia, Clare of Assisi, Thomas Merton, and Teresa of Avila will help answer your most pressing spiritual questions and satisfy the deepest cravings of your heart. From the simplicity and solitude of the desert mystics and other ancient masters to the practicality and prayerfulness of medieval saints such as Julian of Norwich and Catherine of Siena to the relatable sensibilities of modern masters such as Evelyn Underhill and Thomas Merton, Susan Muto, executive director of the Epiphany Association and dean of the Epiphany Academy of Formative Spirituality, draws deeply from the well of the Christian spiritual tradition to address some of our most pressing spiritual hungers. The Desert Fathers teach us how to hear God above the noise of everyday life. Augustine of Hippo acknowledges the restlessness that precedes spiritual growth. Julian of Norwich reflects on the universality and purpose of suffering. Jean Pierre de Caussade explores what it means to have a heart fully surrendered to God. Therese of Lisieux shares her little way of spiritual childhood. In each chapter, Muto introduces a spiritual master who she finds helpful in meeting a particular condition or challenge commonly faced in the Christian life and places that master within the historical and spiritual contexts of their time. Muto then introduces a classic work associated with that master, identifying key themes or principles to apply to your own life. Each chapter concludes with reflection questions to ponder individually or discuss in a group setting. Rich yet accessible, this book will fortify your soul with time-tested spiritual insight and practical wisdom so you
