Patrick Geddes Spokesman For Man And The Environment:

Patrick Geddes: Spokesman for Man and the Environment Sir Patrick Geddes, 1972 Patrick Geddes' Contribution to Sociology and Urban Planning Indra Munshi, 2022-03-29 This book explores Patrick Geddes significant contributions to urban planning and sociology His vision of the city rooted in the principles of social development and preservation of cultural and ecological resources has inspired generations of urban planners architects and social scientists engaged with contemporary urban issues The book discusses Geddes early experiments with urban renewal in Edinburgh the famous Cities and Town Planning Exhibition and his work in India for the improvement of cities and towns with minimal financial and human cost It examines the theoretical underpinnings of his ideas in relation to issues such as better housing and health the preservation of history and culture the role of a citizen university and urban renewal and the contemporary urban ecological crisis among others Furthermore it looks at the question of sustainability in the context of Geddes vision of a more humane social natural and aesthetic town and city A comprehensive review of Patrick Geddes ideas this book underlines the relevance of his work to contemporary urban concerns and issues especially in India It will be of interest to scholars and researchers of sociology urban studies city planning urban sociology architecture human geography urban geography settlement studies development studies and environmental sustainability Patrick Geddes's Intellectual Origins Macdonald Murdo Macdonald, 2020-02-03 Patrick Geddes is one of Scotland s most remarkable thinkers of the late nineteenth century His environmental and cultural message endures today yet the distinctively Scottish context to his thinking has not been properly acknowledged This book situates Geddes within his own intellectual background described by George Davie as the democratic intellect and explores the relevance of that background to Geddes s substantial national and international achievements across a truly impressive range of disciplines Key Features Explores Patrick Geddes Scottish intellectual background in depth for the first time Highlights Geddes s insistence on the importance of arts to sciences and vice versa and the distinctively Scottish context of this approach Considers the interdisciplinary achievements of Geddes in Edinburgh Dundee Paris London and India Pays particular attention to his leadership of the Celtic Revival both from a Scottish perspective and with respect to international links in particular with Indian cultural revivalists such as Ananda Coomaraswamy Inventing the Built Environment Juliana Yat Shun Kei, 2024-06-28 Why and how was the term built environment first introduced Inventing the Built Environment retrieves the origin of this ubiquitous term The articulation of the built environment Kei demonstrates coincided with the redefinition of education research and professional practices in architecture and town planning in 1960s Britain Concentrating on the half decade during which the term permeated the architectural and planning professions this book recalls a time when the built environment was conceived as a part of the British government s effort in national economic planning Inventing the Built Environment unpacks the proposal for a Research Council for the Built Environment to mobilise architecture and town planning for political economy How a relatively small group of architects planners politicians and researchers transposed scientific thoughts from biology economics and computation into the built environment will be considered too Kei highlights the assumptions about and classification of the population that were made when inventing the built environment The architectural and biosocial implications of the making and remaking of this architectural environmental notion in Britain and beyond will be revealed through the works of pre eminent architect planners including Richard Llewelyn Davies and William Holford At a time when environmental concerns again take the front seat of architectural and planning debates this book offers for scholars and students an alternative lens to reflect on the assumptions and bias that can be embedded in our architectural lexicons Manifestoes and

Transformations in the Early Modernist City Professor Christian Hermansen Cordua,2012-11-28 The industrialization of the nineteenth century European city facilitated developing conceptions of the model city and allowed for large scale urban transformations The urban discourse in the latter half of the nineteenth century was consequently dominated by a dialectic exchange between the ideal and the practical a debate played out in the formation of the modern metropolis Manifestoes and Transformations is the first work to deal with urban utopias and their relationship with actual urban interventions Bringing together a carefully chosen wide ranging team of experts the book provides a broad contextual exploration of the ideas and urban practices which are the foundations of our conception of the contemporary city As such it is a valuable resource for students interested in the formation of the modernist city Tel-Aviv, the First Century Maoz Azaryahu,S. Ilan

Troen,2020-03-04 A learned and engaging collection of essays on Israel s diverse modern metropolis established in 1909 Religious Studies Review Tel Aviv the First Century brings together a broad range of scholars and cutting edge research to trace the development and paradoxes of Tel Aviv as an urban center and a national symbol Through the lenses of history literature urban planning gender studies architecture art and other fields these essays reveal the place of Tel Aviv in the life and imagination of its diverse inhabitants The careful and insightful tracing of the development of the city s landscape the relationship of its varied architecture to its competing social cultures and its evolving place in Israel s literary imagination come together to offer a vivid and complex picture of Tel Aviv as a microcosm of Israeli life and a vibrant modern global city Israel s main metropolis is scrutinized through the lens of history geography architecture art literature and gender studies presenting the many facets that have come to constitute the elaborate personality of a very complicated city and society H Judaic The Oxford Critical and Cultural History of Modernist Magazines Peter Brooker,Andrew Thacker,2009-03-26 The first full study of the role of little magazines and their contribution to the making of artistic modernism A major scholarly achievement of immense value to teachers researchers and students interested in the material culture of the first half of the 20th century and the relation of the arts to social modernity Lewis Mumford and the Ecological Region Mark

Luccarelli,1997-03-01 Well known for his column in The New Yorker Lewis Mumford is widely regarded as the foremost urban critic of this century Through historical and theoretical perspectives author Mark Luccarelli traces the development of

Mumford's thought on regional planning focusing on his pioneering concept of an ecologically based region and shows how he attempted to turn his ideas into reality through the Regional Planning Association of America (RPAA). This informative book also demonstrates how Mumford's ideas remain extraordinarily relevant and valuable to today's urban problems. Planning and Citizenship Luigi Mazza, 2015-09-25 Planning is undergoing a period of profound change and risks losing meaning and authority by becoming merely a tool for financial speculation and generating capital. Planning and Citizenship seeks to rediscover planning's technical and theoretical roots by reconstructing the memory of planning through the lens of the changing relationship between planning and citizenship. Tracing the historical relationship between planning and citizenship through a single thread, Luigi Mazza employs three ancient models: those of Hippodamus, Romulus, and Ancient China, to understand the foundations of spatial governance and citizenship. Paying particular attention to classic case studies of American cities, this book moves through the development of central planning theories by key thinkers like Geddes, Cerdà, Howard, Abercrombie, and Lefebvre. Analysing the role of government in promoting social citizenship and symbolic values through planning, Mazza takes into account the changing role of government in planning, including concepts of neoliberalism and the minimal State. Providing critical debate over the current role of spatial governance in planning and citizenship, Planning and Citizenship offers a unique historical analysis of a crucial topic in planning. Ecology and Modern Scottish Literature Louisa Gairn, 2008-05-01 This book presents a provocative and timely reconsideration of modern Scottish literature in the light of ecological thought. Louisa Gairn demonstrates how successive generations of Scottish writers have both reflected on and contributed to the development of international ecological theory and philosophy. Provocative readings of works by authors including Robert Louis Stevenson, John Muir, Nan Shepherd, John Burnside, Kathleen Jamie, and George Mackay Brown demonstrate the significance of ecological thought across the spectrum of Scottish literary culture. This book traces the influence of ecology as a scientific, philosophical, and political concept in the work of these and other writers and, in doing so, presents an original outlook on Scottish literature from the mid-nineteenth century to the present.
