Nichols, 2014-07-25 This text provides a solid introduction to the foundations of research methods with the goal of enabling students and professionals in the various fields of education to not simply become casual consumers of research who passively read bits and pieces of research articles but discerning consumers able to effectively use published research for practical purposes in educational settings All issues important for understanding and using published research for these purposes are covered Key principles are illustrated with research studies published in refereed journals across a wide spectrum of education Exercises distributed throughout the text encourage readers to engage interactively with what they are reading at the point when the information is fresh in their minds This text is designed for higher level undergraduate and graduate programs Course instructors will find that it provides a solid framework in which to promote student interaction and discussion on important issues in research methodology

Transnational Alliances in Higher Education Hana Fehrenbach, 2023-07-12 Hana Fehrenbach's book examines organizational level transnational strategic alliances Through the perspectives of dynamic capabilities and neo institutionalism the study explores the interplay of rationales pathways and benefits of transnational alliances over time of leading universities of technology TU9 in Germany Complex inter connected dynamics at the macro i.e. society meso i.e. organization and micro levels i.e. individual are examined in this qualitative study driven by a deductive approach These interrelated dynamics are then reflected in a recursive process model called STANCE which depicts how through these types of alliances institutions of higher education position themselves in single or multiple organizational fields to gain more strategic and social fitness The study is timely considering the paucity of comprehensive and theoretically anchored research on this contemporary phenomenon and the need for policy makers and senior leadership to make evidence based decisions

Search Engine Optimization Andreas Veglis, Dimitrios Giomelakis, 2021-02-24 This Special Issue book focuses on the theory and practice of search engine optimization SEO It is intended for anyone who publishes content online and it includes five peer reviewed papers from various researchers More specifically the book includes theoretical and case study contributions which review and synthesize important aspects including but not limited to the following themes theory of SEO

different types of SEO SEO criteria evaluation search engine algorithms social media and SEO and SEO applications in various industries as well as SEO on media websites The book aims to give a better understanding of the importance of SEO in the current state of the Internet and online information search Even though SEO is widely used by marketing practitioners there is a relatively small amount of academic research that systematically attempts to capture this phenomenon and its impact across different industries Thus this collection of studies offers useful insights as well as a valuable resource that intends to open the door for future SEO related research

Beyond Digital Distraction Kurt C. Schuett,2024-02-20 This book shares a wealth of educational stakeholder viewpoints about digital distraction from a 1 1 technology integrated high school Data was collected before during and after the start of COVID 19 which provides a unique view into integrated learning and its transformation since the pandemic The author conducted interviews with both teachers and students who also provided logs of their technology use allowing for a qualitative and quantitative understanding of digital distraction Through this insight the author explores the triggers of digital distraction and strategies to help mitigate the phenomenon

Qualitative Research & Evaluation Methods Michael Quinn Patton,2023-02-07 Drawing on more than 40 years of experience conducting applied social science research and program evaluation author Michael Quinn Patton has crafted the most comprehensive and systematic book on qualitative research and evaluation methods inquiry frameworks and analysis options available today Now offering more balance between applied research and evaluation this Fourth Edition illuminates all aspects of qualitative inquiry through new examples stories and cartoons more than a hundred new summarizing and synthesizing exhibits and a wide range of new highlight sections sidebars that elaborate on important and emergent issues For the first time full case studies are included to illustrate extended research and evaluation examples In addition each chapter features an extended rumination written in a voice and style more emphatic and engaging than traditional textbook style about a core issue of persistent debate and controversy

Social Research Methods Joshua Iyadurai,2023-06-15 This book demystifies designing and conducting qualitative quantitative and mixed methods research with scientific rigor Social Research Methods benefits researchers from theology and religious studies in designing interdisciplinary research and interacting with social sciences and other disciplines to study contextually relevant issues by focusing on lived religion lived theology lived experience and real world problems Joshua Iyadurai skillfully guides researchers with a step by step guide on the practical nuances of choosing a topic engaging literature selecting a paradigm collecting and analyzing data interpreting the findings and writing a research proposal and a dissertation thesis article for qualitative quantitative and mixed methods research A separate chapter on supervising and examining social research helps students and professors to understand each other s role in field based studies Social Research Methods is an indispensable resource for researchers from theology and religious studies and a valuable practical guide for researchers from social sciences and humanities Why Read this Book Instills confidence in researchers to design and conduct qualitative quantitative and mixed methods research with scientific rigor The first of its kind to introduce qualitative quantitative and mixed methods strategies with guidance for choosing a topic and collecting and analyzing data for theology and religious research Up to date and authoritative by arraying current and leading methodology texts with examples for researching lived experiences lived religion and lived theology A step by step guide for writing every section of a research proposal and for writing each chapter for qualitative quantitative and mixed methods dissertation thesis which will make the research journey pleasant for students Provides tips for writing DMin dissertation and journal article Offers guidelines for supervisors and examiners for assisting and assessing student projects Review Questions and Further Help at the end of each chapter Glossary and Index which are among other helpful resources for researchers An invaluable resource for students and professors from social sciences education development management and the humanities besides theology and religious studies A practical guide for researchers from churches religious bodies NGOs and others Review Quotes Compared to other approaches to theology and religious studies missiology has the propensity to use social science methods This clearly written introduction to complex terrain will enable students to navigate it and develop tools for their own project and students are more likely to recognize their research interests in its examples Especially useful features include the glossary and the section on student supervisors mentors and examiners This volume is authoritative and cognisant of other leading texts KIRSTEEN KIM Pierson Professor of World Christianity Fuller Theological Seminary co editor of The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies This textbook fills an important niche for postgraduate researchers embarking on empirical research in Practical Theology or Religious Studies Those who have little or no background in the social sciences will find this a clear and well structured introduction on how to conceive a research project and what methods are available to answer their research questions Reading this before they embark on their journey could save a lot of problems further down the road ANDREW VILLAGE Professor of Practical and Empirical Theology York St John University author of The Church of England in the First Decade of the 21st Century Here is a fascinating and engaging handbook every researcher in theology and religious studies should read and assimilate It fulfils a felt need by pooling the wealth of sociological methodologies and applying them to the scientific study of lived religion The author has done a unique service and his work will remain a point of reference for years FELIX WILFRED Founder and Director of Asian Centre for Cross Cultural Studies Chennai editor of The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia It is very good to see the use of social science methods being developed to aid religious studies and theological research My hope is that this very practical book using such up to date resources as Alan Bryman s Social Research Methods OUP now in its fifth edition will help to develop this important form of study further ROBIN GILL Emeritus Professor of Applied Theology University of Kent author of the trilogy on Sociological Theology This volume fills an important gap in the field by bringing social scientific methods into theology and religious studies All parties in this conversation have much to gain from a sustained dialogue and this book moves us in that direction JOHN BARTKOWSKI Professor Sociology University of Texas at San Antonio This is a valuable resource written in a way that theological students will understand and supervisors will appreciate It takes the student by the hand from the formulation of the research topic through methodological positioning and choices and closes with a chapter on supervision expectations I look forward to prescribing it to my own postgraduate students NADINE BOWERS DU TOIT Professor Theology and Development University of Stellenbosch editor of Race Faith and Inequality amongst Young Adults in South Africa The highly readable yet exhaustive and authoritative text covers all aspects of the variety of methods available to contemporary scientists who either produce or evaluate empirical research The text is intended for students and scholars of theology and religious studies but anyone interested in how religion is practiced in different cultural contexts and want to understand individual lived experiences and interpretations will find this text an invaluable guide RALPH W HOOD Jr Professor of Psychology University of Tennessee co editor of Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion series Upon launching out on research students and scholars are always on the lookout for good books on research methodology In Dr Iyadurai s book they will find an excellent manual spanning the length and breadth of what they are looking for I strongly recommend this book to all those engaged in research FRANCIS GONSALVES SJ President Jnana Deepa Pontifical Athenaeum of Philosophy Theology author of God of Our Soil Towards Subaltern Trinitarian Theology Joshua Iyadurai has been teaching research methods to PhD students in Christian Studies for over a decade He is an expert facilitator in this hybrid field helping both theology and religious studies students use social research methods more rigorously and effectively This book will be immensely helpful to anyone wanting to do research in the field of religion as well as to those in classes focused on research methods I highly recommend it ROBERT K JOHNSTON Professor of Theology and Culture Fuller Theological Seminary co author of Deep Focus Film and Theology in Dialogue Social Research Methods for Students and Scholars of Theology and Religious Studies is a masterpiece that draws from Joshua s experience of teaching social research for two decades The book aims to catalyze theological scholarship using social research methods with scientific precision Scholars educators and graduate students will find this text a welcome resource I highly recommend it DAVID TARUS Executive Director Association for Christian Theological Education in Africa ACTEA author of A Different Way of Being
