Paul And Philippians:

Paul's Letter to the Philippians Gordon D. Fee, 1995-07-14 Gordon Fee's study on Paul's letter to the Philippians is a contribution to The New International Commentary on the New Testament Prepared by some of the world's leading scholars the series provides an exposition of the New Testament books that is thorough and fully abreast of modern scholarship yet faithful to the Scriptures as the infallible Word of God

Paul's Letter to the Philippians in the Light of Disunity in the Church Davorin Peterlin, 1995 This study provides a new perspective on the contents of Philippians by investigating the wider context of disunity in the church which focused on the issue of financial support for Paul

Empowered by Joy Paul S. Jeon, 2012-06-08 The temptation to give up while running the race of faith is all too real Despite our best attempts to be faithful witnesses of the gospel of Christ we oftentimes feel overwhelmed by discouragement and doubt Empowered by Joy is a devotional inspired by Paul's letter to the Philippians It focuses on how we can enjoy an endless stream of joy through our relationship with Christ and thus experience power to fulfill our calling to make known the good news of God

The Price of Partnership in the Letter of Paul to the Philippians Mark A. Jennings, 2018-01-25 Mark A. Jennings challenges the consensus that there is no clear single purpose that shapes the entire epistle to the Philippians instead arguing that there is significant evidence for Paul to have written the letter with the sole intent of persuading the church to maintain its exclusive partnership with him and his gospel mission Jennings examines each section of Philippians with standard historical critical methods rhetorical criticism and social scientific methods Establishing that Paul's argument is rooted in three fundamental tenets emphasis is first placed on koinonia and the agreement that Paul and the Philippians had entered into regarding his apostolic mission Second Jennings looks at the repeated proofs that Paul offers that simultaneously affirm the ordained superiority of his apostolic mission and repudiate the claims of his rivals Third Jennings analyses the issue of finances in the epistle discussing how Paul rhetorically transforms the Philippians financial support into a salient indicator that they esteem his gospel mission authentic Finally whereas other scholars have argued that Paul entreats the Philippians to be steadfast in their commitment to the gospel of Christ Jennings proposes that Paul urges the church to be steadfast in their commitment to his gospel of Christ Jennings then considers how this seemingly small distinction has profound ramifications for understanding the letter and shows the gap between these interpretations

Commentary on Paul's Letter to the Philippians Zack Meaders Guess, 2017-10-17 Pastor Guess has been preaching for over fifty years and considers it a great privilege that God called him into the ministry During this time he has had a love affair with the Word of God Early in his ministry he was drawn to Paul's Epistle to the Philippians This church was extremely generous and helpful to Paul It was obviously a favorite church of Paul Brother Guess began to study the book and eventually memorized it He has preached through it several times He wrote this commentary as a labor of love He also loves the Koine Greek that the Lord used in the inspiration of the New Testament In writing this commentary he has heavily drawn from many of the divinely inspired grammatical constructions that cast much light on this epistle Also he has done extensive Greek word studies that provide a spiritual gold mine Any New Testament assembly that wants to please the Lord would do well to study and emulate this delightful church that caused the beloved apostle such joy A Handbook on Paul's Letter to the Philippians I-Jin Loh,Eugene Albert Nida,1995 A Roman Commentary on St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians Richard J. Cassidy,2019-09-03 Paul writes his letter to the Philippians referencing two related forms of persecution The Christians of Philippi are experiencing persecution by the Roman authorities who govern the Philippi Paul himself is experiencing persecution by the Roman authorities the Roman emperor s praetorian guard in Rome Roman persecution is thus the fundamental context for his letter Paul s most basic premise in this letter is to hold high the slave Jesus Christ In perhaps the most moving passage he ever wrote Phil 2 6 11 Paul delineates that Jesus did not count equality with God something to be grasped at but rather empties himself taking the form of a slave and embracing crucifixion the slave s form of death Accordingly God has raised Jesus to the highest place and has caused all on the earth above the earth and under the earth to bow at the name of Jesus and to proclaim that Jesus alone is Lord to the glory of God the Father Very significantly Paul affirms that Christian slaves are ennobled by Jesus initiatives Because these slaves now join the other Christian citizens in having citizenship in heaven Paul s letter constitutes a radical threat to the Roman imperial authorities in this way as well The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Philippians Handley Carr Glyn Moule,1918 St. Paul's Epistle to the Philippians Charles John Vaughan,1885
