Paul And The Christian Woman:

Paul and the Christian Woman Brendan J. Byrne,1988 Paul and the Christian Woman Brendan Byrne,1988-10-01

Unveiling Paul's Women Lucy Peppiatt,2018-01-30 Whether people realize it or not the ideas in 1 Corinthians 11 2 16 have had a huge impact on the role of Christian women in the church through the centuries These fifteen verses have shaped worship practices church structures church leadership marriages and even relationships between men and women in general They have contributed to practices that have consistently placed women in a subordinate role to men and have been used to justify the idea that a woman should not occupy a leadership or teaching position without being under the authority or covering of a man It is strange therefore that academics and pastors alike continue to note how confusing and difficult it continues to be to make sense of these very verses In this little book Lucy Peppiatt not only highlights the problems associated with using this text to justify the subordination of women but offers a clear and plausible re reading of the text that paints the apostle Paul as a radical visionary church planter who championed women in all forms of leadership Paul, Women, and Wives Craig S. Keener,1992-06-01 Paul s letters stand at the center of the dispute over women the church and the home with each side championing passages from the Apostle Now in a challenging new attempt to wrestle with these thorny texts Craig Keener delves as deeply into the world of Paul and the apostles as anyone thus far Acknowledging that we must take the biblical text seriously and recognizing that Paul s letters arose in a specific time and place for a specific purpose Keener mines the historical lexical cultural and exegetical details behind Paul s words about women in the home and ministry to give us one of the most insightful expositions of the key Pauline passages in years What Paul Really Said

About Women John Temple Bristow,2023-11-21 John Temple Bristow s What Paul Really Said About Women challenges the traditional understanding of St Paul s epistles and sexism in the modern church Attempting to reconcile the Apostle Paul s scripture about women being submissive to men in Ephesians 5 with his words in Galatians 3 that there is no male or female and everyone is one in Christ Jesus John Temple Bristow uncovered differences between Paul s original Greek Ephesians writings and the English version translation that indicates a deliberate alteration of the text s meaning in favor of men Provocative and revelatory Bristow s book explores not only What Paul Really Said About Women but the history and culture of the church that misinterpreted his message A convincing case for equality of the sexes based on the very passages that are all too often used as proof texts to uphold male dominance and female subordination For any person who reveres scripture but who struggles with traditional interpretations of passages concerning women and who fears that a desire for equality between the sexes is a violation of biblical principles this book is a must Letha Dawson Scanzoni co author of All We re Meant to Be Bristow acquits Paul of misogyny and restores him to his rightful stature as a great architect of human liberation Even more importantly Bristow urges contemporary churches to follow the radically egalitarian vision of the apostle Paul Virginia Ramey Mollenkott author of Women Men and the Bible Cuts through much misguided rhetoric to display the actual enhancement of women's status in early Christian culture Timothy L Smith author of Called Unto Holiness Lectures on the Calling of a Christian Woman, and her Training to Fulfil It. Delivered During the Season of Lent, A. D. 1883

Morgan Dix, 2025-07-12 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Paul's Joy in Christ A. T. Robertson, 1917 Paul and the Gentile Women

Tatha Wiley, 2005-03-30 For hundreds of years Paul's letter to the Galatians has been a flashpoint of controversy among Christians Why did Paul write the letter and what was at issue in the controversy over Torah observance particularly male circumcision Has the letter with its classic contrast of faith in Christ and works of the law served to divide Jews from Christians and Christians from one other Radically reframing the debate Tatha Wiley's fresh approach decisively shifts the Galatian question to focus on the social consequences of Paul's bitter disagreement with the circumcision preachers and specifically the implications of the dispute for Gentile women in the community Wiley maintains that Paul's argument of equality in Christ was directed to and for the situation of women whose newly won status was jeopardized by the preaching of Paul's opponents By looking at the issue of circumcision from the angle of the Gentile women of Galatia Wiley cuts to the core concerns of the dispute gender privilege religious authority and the life changing implications of Christian commitment

Paul, Christian Textuality, and the Hermeneutics of Late Antiquity, 2023-12-07 The essays in the present volume celebrate the work of Margaret M Mitchell University of Chicago by engaging extending and challenging her groundbreaking research in three areas 1 the letters of Paul the Apostle both authentic and pseudepigraphic 2 the emergence and rapid development of early Christian literary culture over the first few centuries of the cult's existence and 3 Late Antique interpretive practices and perspectives particularly among patristic readers of the scriptures Man and Woman, One in Christ Philip Barton Payne, 2009 Man and Woman One in Christ demonstrates that careful exegesis of Paul's letters affirms the full equality of men and women in the church and in the home Exploring the entire Pauline corpus Philip Barton Payne injects crucial insights and cultural backgrounds into the discussion of Paul's statements regarding women
