Romans in Context D. V. Palmer, 2011-03-04 Using crucial chapters from Paul s magnum opus as points of theological departure Delano Palmer provides in depth discussion on important themes like the role of first century women in pastoral work and the nature and duration of spiritual endowments Romans in Context is divided into three parts Part one reviews the career and legacy of the apostle Paul against the backdrop of his cultural milieu and history Part two takes up the knotty problem of what exactly does the apostle mean by justification by faith in its exploration of the declarative demonstrative proposal of modern theologians The section also explores what Paul has to say concerning the status of the justified in Romans 5:8. It is the final section that wrestles with matters of spiritual gifts, the role of female pastors as well as the apostle's best documented thoughts on Christian mission. Journal of Hispanic/Latino Theology, 1999

Chikamoneka!: Gender and Empire in Religion and Public Life Cheelo Siwila, Sylvia Mukuka, 2022-03-21 This is a pioneering volume that emerges from the voices of women scholars who belong to the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians in their response to the subjection of women and children in religion and public life. The book uses the metaphor Chikamoneka, literally meaning it shall be seen, to demonstrate resistance to all forms of oppression by empire to humanity, especially those inflicted on women and children. Some of the themes that are addressed in this book are drawn from women's lived experiences. This demonstrates the power of narrative theory as a tool for academic discourse. The book makes a vital contribution to academic religious and secular society in the field of Gender, Religion, Development and Sociology. It is also the first publication by the African Women of Circle. Paul and the Politics of Difference Jae Won Lee, 2015-02-26 Paul lies at the core of the constant debate about the opposition between Christianity and Judaism both in biblical interpretation and public discourse. The so-called new perspective on Paul has not offered a significant break from the formidable paradigm of Christian universalism versus Jewish particularism in Pauline scholarship. This book liberates Paul from the Western logic of identity and its dominant understanding of difference. Drawing attention to the currency of discourses on difference in contemporary theories as well as in biblical studies, the author critically examines the hermeneutical relevance of a contextual and relational understanding of difference. He applies it to interpret the dynamics of Jew/Gentile difference reflected particularly in meal practices (Gal 2:1-21 and Rom 14:1-15:13) of early Christian communities. Paul and the Politics of Difference argues that by deconstructing the hierarchy of social relations underlying the Jew/Gentile difference in different community situations, Paul promotes a politics of difference. This affirms a preferential option for the socially weak, solidarity with the weak. Paul's politics of difference is invoked as the potential for liberation in a vision of egalitarian justice in the face of contemporary globalism's proliferation of difference. The Black Studies Reader Jacqueline Bobo, Cynthia Hudley, Claudine Michel, 2004 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an information company.
