Paul Tillich's Theology Of Culture In Dialogue With African Theology A Contextual Analysis:

Paul Tillich's Theology of Culture in Dialogue with African Theology Sylvester I. Ihuoma, 2004 This fundamental theological study is innovative eye opening and interdisciplinary in orientation The book makes a constructive contribution to the debate on both Tillich's theology of culture and African contextual theology It reconstructs Tillich's theology of culture in an original manner and contemporaneously helps readers understand the religious cultural thought of the Igbo especially with regard to the idea of the Supreme Being The Cambridge Companion to Paul Tillich Russell Re Manning, 2009-02-12 This authoritative Companion to the theologian Paul Tillich provides an accessible account of the major themes in his diverse theological writings It embodies and develops recent renewed interest in Tillich's theology and reaffirms him as a major figure in today's theological landscape The Church-as-family and Ethnocentrism in Sub-Saharan Africa Gerald K. Tanye, 2010 Ethnocentrism is one of the greatest obstacles to peace on the African continent Taking the Church as Family of God as a model of evangelization this work explores means of inculturating the Gospel message in African cultures in order to transform them make them blossom and enable Africans to live as authentic Christians in their cultures It examines the values of African extended families and the prospects of interreligious dialogue as means through which the various religious bodies can effectively work together to overcome ethnocentrism and its evil effects and thus establish a wholesome African society where every human person is at home irrespective of family orientation or tribal background Returning to Tillich Russell Re Manning, Samuel Andrew Shearn, 2017-12-04 Fifty years after his death in 1965 the essays in this collection return to Paul Tillich to investigate his theology and its legacy with a focus on contemporary British scholarship Originating in a conference held in Oxford in 2014 the book contains 16 original contributions from a mixture of junior and more established scholars most of whom have a connection to Britain The contributions are diverse but four themes emerge throughout the volume Several essays are concerning with a characterisation of Tillich's theology In dialogue with recent emphases on the radical Tillich some essays suggest a more conservative estimation of Tillich's theology rooted in the Idealist and classical Christian platonic traditions whilst in constant engagement with changing existential situations Secondly and perhaps reflecting the context of religious diversity and theories of religious pluralism in Britain many essays engage Tillich's approach to non Christian religions Thirdly some essays address the importance of existentialist philosophy for Tillich notably via an engagement with Sartre Finally a number of essays take up the diagnostic potential of Tillich's theology as a resource for engaging contemporary challenges Dust that Breathes William Schweiker, 2010-12-09 In this insightful and look at the practical challenges and possibilities for Christian life in the global age Schweiker investigates Christianity's current relevance and discusses how the life of faith can be oriented Explores the big religious themes of modern life including religious identity in global times the role of conscience integrity and versions of religious humanism Written by an author who is internationally recognized as one of the world's leading theologians Draws on the work of some prominent contemporary philosophers and theologians to clarify the nature of faith Unique in its appreciation of the ambiguity of religion in its representations of the highest human achievements as well as the very worst of human actions using a balanced and engaged approach to discusses contentious theological and intellectual issues The Principle of Excellence Nimi Wariboko,2009-01-01 This book is a bold attempt to reconceptualize excellence It is no longer the virtue of doing something well or the mean of two extremes but a clearing which allows humans to manifest their potentialities and creatively resist obstacles The concept of excellence is emancipated from the excessive concern with order and good citizenry to become a libratory principle for interrogating all social institutions in the name of a better future Stories from the Fireplace Tekletsadik Belachew,2020-12-22 This book is an interdisciplinary theological exploration of Haile Gerima s cinema an Ethiopian filmmaker and storyteller who successfully translated African folkloric orality and wove other indigenous art forms into the language of cinema Gerima s five decades legacy of Pan African cinema embodies symbolic resistance against Afro pessimistic and stereotypical mis disrepresentations both manifestations of neo colonialism In response he uses camera as a weapon to resist exotic otherness and alienation invented by conventional cinema Through an alternative moving pictures he depicted dignified images of Africa towards decolonising cinema and liberating the mind His memory films achieves archiving the stories of the people of African descent Gerima who stands in par with great African film griots such as Ousmane Sembne the father of African cinema and Med Hondo deserves further interdisciplinary reflections Gerima s Triangular cinema and imperfect cinema are inspired from indigenous values and cultural products such as holy icons and fireplace stories His works foster asserting identity of the self maintaining the right to difference and embracing ubuntu like human personhood They are essential acts in the 21st century Like theology cinema alters a way of life human experiences imaginations and narrative identity This book engages with the works and thoughts of Gerima towards re imaging Africa through cinematic narratives in being and becoming an African Religion and Reflection Robert P. Scharlemann,2004 Author Robert P Scharlemann is one of the most profound interpreters of the philosophy and theology of Paul Tillich This volume contains 18 essays on Tillich written by Scharlemann between 1965 and 2002 The unifying theme of these essays might perhaps be described as the systematic question of the ontological connection between the symbol God and the concept of being Macht und Gewalt Werner Schüssler,Erdmann Sturm,2005
