Emmanuel Okechukwu Odita

Paul Cezanne The Bathers:

Paul Cézanne Mary Louise Elliot Krumrine, Paul Cézanne, 1990 Of the bathers Paul Cézanne Mary Louise Krumrine, 1990 The theme of the bathers fascinated Cézanne from 1870 until his death in 1906 He created masterpiece after masterpiece and the many studies that emerged from this period are exquisite works in themselves Paul Cézanne The Bathers brings all these paintings and drawings together in one magnificently illustrated volume the first to concentrate on this major theme which appeared in some 200 of Cézanne's works Relating these images to works of literature of the period to Cézanne's changing relationships with women and to the milieu of nineteenth century France the lively and original text provides a revealing portrait of the artist's complex personality and artistic development While the early bathers were based largely on scenes of everyday life the later works became increasingly abstract with deeper more symbolic meanings which at first baffled the critics yet fascinated his fellow painters The Bathers of Paul Cezanne: Text Melvin Waldfoegel, 1961

Cézanne's Bathers: Biography and the Erotics of Paint Aruna D'Souza, 1999 Paul Cézanne, 1839-1906 Ulrike Becks-Malorny, 2001 From banker to painter Cezanne and the Impressionists Harmony in parallel with nature Still lifes Mont Saint Victoire Latter years Paul Cézanne Mary Louise Krumrine, 1990 The Bathers of Paul Cezanne: Plates Melvin Waldfoegel, 1961 Paul Cézanne Emmanuel Okechukwu Odita, 1965 The Paintings of Paul Cezanne Paul Cezanne, 2012-11-30 Unlike many other artists of his period who painted in only one area of composition Cezanne was adept at many areas of composition including landscapes still lifes nude studies and portraits The artist completed many portraits often using models from real life as his guides He employed a light style that was related to his direct observation of his subject as indicated by the lightly amused looks on Madame Cezanne's face and her engaged postures His paintings are also indicative of his use of small color planes Rather than completing the painting with realistic depth and shadow he illustrates the figures as if they are in a singular dimension employing the use of one color for each area of the composition From Cezanne's home in Aix en Provence Southern France where he spent many of his later years painting he developed a special relationship with the landscape of the Provence and painted many renditions of it especially the mountain Sainte Victoire in the background The paintings clearly illustrate the way Cezanne sought to depict the nature of reality and our perception of it The mountain gives way to simple forms and the buildings in the foreground have been devolved into their particular shapes all the while keeping the entirety of the landscape intact Cezanne's use of light and color give the impression that it is not his renderings of the landscapes that give them their fragmented quality but that it is an inherent quality of the landscapes itself The Bathers 1900 is the largest in a series of nude bather paintings by Cezanne see back cover and is often referred to as the Large Bathers or Big Bathers to distinguish it from the other bather scenes painted by Cezanne It is also considered one of the masterpieces of modern art as well as Cezanne's finest painting It was purchased for 100 000 for the Philadelphia Museum of Art which was criticized for the expenditure because at the time ten percent of Philadelphia's population was without bathtubs The nude figures in the painting have been compared to Picasso's later work Les Femmes d'Alger (O.J. 114) suggesting the influence that Cézanne had on the painters of the period The Bathers of Paul Cézanne Melvin Waldfogel, 1961
