Better Than Babylon Thomas G. Casey,2012 What is Babylon Babylon is that which blocks our access to the door of possibility that which impoverishes Babylon is the part of Western culture that imprisons us with its seductive images of false happiness and fulfillment Better Than Babylon invites us to break free of our prisons It urges us to reject the subtle enslavement that blinds us to what s important the superficial images that prevent us from touching the soul of things By engaging with key issues in our culture women family education work the environment war and peace author Thomas Casey calls upon us to break through the door and go beyond our habitual ways of looking at them This book is an invitation to go beyond Babylon Babylon comfortable as it may be need not be our lasting prison The world of possibility is much vaster than we dared imagine This truth can set us free from the

Balzac Reframed Zahra Tavassoli Zea,2019-11-14 This book examines the theoretical affiliations between the most notable proponent of literary realism Honor de Balzac and two understated but key representatives of the French New Wave ric Rohmer and Jacques Rivette It argues that their film criticism which gradually led to the establishment of a common aesthetic vision of cinema the politique des auteurs owes more to Balzac and the nineteenth century novel than to any intellectual trend of the immediate post war period By considering the films of Rohmer and Rivette as an extension of their writings essays film reviews scriptwriting novels and interviews this volume analyses the changing and sometimes opposed ways in which they applied Balzacian principles and themes to their cinematic practice Essentially it understands the exchange between art forms past traditions and contemporaneous currents as the overlooked yet common thread that links these three authors through their own re appropriations of classical and romantic aesthetics in their explorations of modern French society In doing so this study provides further nuance to the conservative versus progressist rupture that is generally assumed between the two directors and offers an innovative reading of The Human Comedy in the light of post war ideas on authorship film adaptation classicism and modernism excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Film Cheat Murray Pomerance, 2020-10-15 Murray Pomerance venerated film scholar is the first to take on the cheat in film where cheating constitutes a collection of production performance and structuring maneuvers intended to foster the impression of a screen reality that does not exist as presented This usually calls for a suspension of disbelief in the viewer but that rests on the assumption that disbelief is problematic for viewership and that we must find some way to suspend or disconnect it in order to allow for the entertainment of the fiction in its own terms The Film Cheat explores forty five aspects of the cheat analyzing classic films such as Singin in the Rain and Chinatown to more contemporary films like The Revenant and Baby Driver with Pomerance engaging his encyclopedic knowledge of film history to point out numerous instances of suspensions of disbeliefs Whether or not Gene Kelly is actually dancin in the rain or if Elliott is really flying on his bicycle carrying E T these cheats are what make movie magic Elegantly weaving the narrative for one to dip into at random or to read from cover to cover Pomerance turns things upside down so that the audience actually finds pleasure in the cheat itself pleasure in the disbelief To see the elegant fake the supremely accomplished simulacrum is a pleasure in its own right indeed one of the fundamental pleasures of cinema Crossing New Europe Ewa Mazierska, Laura Rascaroli, 2006 Although a long established and influential genre this is the first comprehensive study of the European road cinema Crossing New Europe investigates this tradition its relationship with the American road movie and its aesthetic forms This movement examines such crucial issues as individual and national identity crises and phenomena such as displacement diaspora exile migration nomadism and tourism in postmodern post Berlin Wall Europe Drawing on the work of Said Hall Shields Urry Bauman Deleuze and Guattari and other critical theorists Crossing New Europe adopts a broad interpretation of Europe and discusses directors and films who have long been associated with the road movie such as Wim Wenders Alice in the Cities Lisbon Story and Aki Kaurismäki Leningrad Cowboys Go America and other more recent contributions such as Run Lola Run Dear Diary and The Last Resort

A Life Wright Morris, 2017-10 Floyd Warner eighty two has driven from California to his childhood home in Nebraska in his antique Maxwell coupe There he confronts the smoldering remains of this late sister's house and the realization that he is now completely alone As though in a trance he sets out once again this time to find his first adult home a dusty sheep farm in the southwest preparing to meet the fate that ultimately awaits him Of such deceptively simple ingredients is this brilliant portrait of the last hours of an old man's life composed Floyd Warner who first appeared in Fire Sermon is perhaps the ultimate characterization in the career of a writer who has been called quite simply the best novelist now writing in America John W Aldridge Eric Rohmer Éric Rohmer, 2013 The 1969 film Ma Nuit chez Maud catapulted its shy academic film director Eric Rohmer 1920-2010 into the limelight selling over a million tickets in France and earning a nomination for an Academy Award Ma Nuit chez Maud remains his most famous film the highlight of an impressive range of films examining the sexual romantic and artistic mores of contemporary France the temptations of desire the small joys of everyday life and sometimes the vicissitudes of history and politics Yet Rohmer was already forty years old when Maud was released and had already had a career as the editor of Cahiers du Cinéma a position he lost in a political takeover in 1963 The interviews in this book offer a range of insights into the theoretical critical and practical circumstances of Rohmer's remarkably coherent body of films but also allow Rohmer to act as his own critic providing us with an array of readings concerning his interest in setting season color and narrative Alongside the application of a theoretical rigor to his own films Rohmer's interviews also discuss directors as varied as Godard Carné Renoir and Hitchcock and the relations of film to painting architecture and music This book reproduces little known interviews such as a debate Rohmer undertakes with Women and Film concerning feminism alongside detailed discussions from Cahiers and Positif many produced in English here for the first time
