A Metaphysics of Love George Pattison, 2021 As the third part of a philosophy of Christian life A Metaphysics of Love builds on a view of Christian life as shaped by the dynamic of call response and promise It argues that love is the ultimate content of this dynamic and considers how far this claim extends Taking its bearings from Dante's vision of divine love as the power that moves the sun and other stars this study explores the requirement that love is both human and cosmic uniting being and beings Cognizant of much recent philosophy's desire to overcome or move beyond a metaphysics of being it examines some of the formal structures that make love possible including language time social being forgiveness and ultimacy Following on from the earlier volumes extensive use is made of the idea of the poetic as the eminent mode of Christian witness contextualized within the prose of everyday life Heidegger provides fundamental philosophical orientation whilst key features of love are brought to the fore through dialogue with Kierkegaard Dante and Dostoevsky are frequent points of reference in addition to a range of literary and religious sources including the Scottish poet Edwin Muir Leading scholar George Pattison concludes that the phenomenon of love requires us to articulate a metaphysics that involves both being and nothingness thereby taking a critical position vis vis both classical theism and existential atheism

Antinomy and Symbol: Pavel Florensky's Philosophy of Discontinuity Andrea Oppo, 2024-08-19 Pavel Florensky 1882 1937 was a Russian philosopher theologian and scientist He was considered by his contemporaries to be a polymath on a par with Pascal or Da Vinci This book is the first comprehensive study in the English language to examine Florensky's entire philosophical oeuvre in its key metaphysical concepts For Florensky antinomy and symbol are the two faces of a single issue the universal truth of discontinuity This truth is a general law that represents better than any other the innermost structure of the universe With its original perspective Florensky's philosophy is unique in the context of modern Russian thought but also in the history of philosophy per se

The Mother of God in the Theology of Sergius Bulgakov Walter Nunzio Sisto, 2017-10-25 This book explores the Mariology of one of the most unique and fascinating thinkers in the Russian Orthodox tradition Father Sergius Bulgakov Bulgakov develops the Russian sophianic mariological tradition initiated by Vladimir Soloviev and argues that Mary is the soul of the world or the pneumatological hypostasis Mary is the first and greatest disciple to be adopted by the Holy Spirit By situating Mary within the life and mission of the Holy Spirit Bulgakov maintains the respect and veneration that Orthodox Christians have for Mary but also places Mary squarely within the community of disciples Mary is a model disciple who reveals that the goal of the spiritual life spiritual motherhood In addition this text reveals the relevance and importance of Bulgakov s contribution to the contemporary discussion about the role of Mary in the history of salvation

The Orthodox Christian World Augustine Casiday, 2012-08-21 Over the last century unprecedented numbers of Christians from traditionally Orthodox societies migrated around the world Once seen as an oriental or eastern phenomenon Orthodox Christianity is now much more widely dispersed and in many parts of the modern world one need not go far to find an Orthodox community at worship This collection offers a compelling overview of the Orthodox world covering the main regional traditions of Orthodox Christianity and the ways in which they have become global The contributors are drawn from the Orthodox community worldwide and explore a rich selection of key figures and themes The book provides an innovative and illuminating approach to the subject ideal for students and scholars alike

Freedom and Necessity in Modern Trinitarian Theology Brandon Gallaher, 2016-09-02 Freedom and Necessity in Modern Trinitarian Theology examines the tension between God and the world through a constructive reading of the Trinitarian theologies and Christologies of Sergii Bulgakov 1871 1944 Karl Barth 1886 1968 and Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905 1988 It focuses on what is called the problematic of divine freedom and necessity and the response of the writers Problematic refers to God being simultaneously radically free and utterly bound to creation God did not need to create and redeem the world in Christ It is a contingent free gift Yet on the other side of a dialectic he also has eternally determined himself to be God as Jesus Christ He must create and redeem the world to be God as he has so determined In this way the world is given a certain free necessity by him because if there were no world then there would be no Christ A spectrum of different concepts of freedom and necessity and a theological ideal of a balance between the same are outlined and then used to illumine the writers and to articulate a constructive response to the problematic Brandon Gallaher shows that the classical Christian understanding of God having a non necessary relationship to the world and divine freedom being a sheer assertion of God s will must be completely rethought Gallaher proposes a Trinitarian Christocentric and cruciform vision of divine freedom God is free as eternally self giving self emptying and self receiving love The work concludes with a contemporary theology of divine freedom founded on divine election

Sergii Bulgakov Serge? Nikolaevich Bulgakov, 1999-01-01 Sergii Bulgakov was one of the most influential Russian thinkers in the Silver Age of Russian intellectual life in the decade and a half before the Revolution This

Dennis O'Neill, 2018-09-20 Archbishop Desmond Tutu of Cape Town once said with regard to South Africa's apartheid policy One of the ways of helping to destroy a people is to tell them that they don't have a history that they have no roots More recently he described homophobic discrimination as totally unacceptable and unjust as apartheid ever was Unfortunately it has been particularly difficult for some gay lesbian bisexual and transgender Christians to remain connected to identify with their own faith traditions because some of these traditions not only treat them as people of secondary status but also teach Christian history as though no people of same gender attraction or opposite gender identity had any noteworthy place in it and made no significant contributions at all to Christian tradition Passionate Holiness tries to remedy this situation by explaining why acquaintance with the stories of certain saints with whom gender minorities can identify can help them to connect with their own history and spiritual legacy and empower them to face a brighter future with a sense of optimism and inclusion Multireligious Reflections on Friendship Laura Duhan-Kaplan, Anne-Marie Ellithorpe, Hussam S.

Timani, 2023-05-22 Multireligious Reflections on Friendship Becoming Ourselves in Community presents a multi religious discussion of spiritual and ethical formation through friendship Contributors discuss the positive effects of friendship and some of the culturally diverse ways that friendships develop Friends help us co exist in diverse societies live sustainably in our ecosystems heal from trauma develop inner virtues engage wisely in social action and connect with the divine While friendship is a core human value cultural traditions have used different tools to build friendships For example Indigenous communities emphasize reciprocity on the land Jewish traditions encourage respect for study partners Buddhist teachers suggest discernment in befriending Christian texts speak of bringing God's love into community The fifteen scholars contributing to this book draw on the teachings of six different global traditions Indigenous Hindu Jewish Buddhist Islamic and Christian Each scholar applies the tools of their tradition reciprocity respect discernment love and more to discuss how we might become our best selves in community
