Portraiture and Politics in Revolutionary France

Amy Freund, 2015-06-13 Portraiture and Politics in Revolutionary France challenges widely held assumptions about both the genre of portraiture and the political and cultural role of images in France at the beginning of the nineteenth century After 1789 portraiture came to dominate French visual culture because it addressed the central challenge of the Revolution how to turn subjects into citizens Revolutionary portraits allowed sitters and artists to appropriate the means of representation both aesthetic and political and articulate new forms of selfhood and citizenship often in astonishingly creative ways The triumph of revolutionary portraiture also marks a turning point in the history of art when seriousness of purpose and aesthetic ambition passed from the formulation of historical narratives to the depiction of contemporary individuals This shift had major consequences for the course of modern art production and its engagement with the political and the contingent

Anatomy of Spirituality: Portrait of the Soul Chander Behl, 2015-04-27 The domain of spirituality separated from its theological overburden believes in the existence of a spiritual self presumed to be distinctly separate from the psychological self The spiritual eternal self also known as the soul or spirit sometimes supported by an overarching Spirit is asserted to be operating behind the ephemeral self This book takes a contrarian stance it argues that the premise of the soul concept is obtained through the magic of language maintained through the marvel of the brain s biochemistry and sustained through the mirage of the psychological juggernauts of the brain The magic the marvel and the mirage together bring about subtle shifts as the linguistic brain suppresses many psychological details habitually applies mental templates such as inversions and dichotomies and enhances its language by coining religious and spiritual metaphors The consequence of these changes is that the usual flickering self begins to be impressed by itself believing it is buttressed by something transcendental and eternal within the soul or the spirit The self although indoctrinated during its formative years also begins to assimilate and accept the opinion that the overwhelming weight of religious doctrines and dogmas the overburden signifies as the legitimate
