Portroyal Et La Littarature:

Les littératures nationales depuis leur apparition et la littérature latine depuis la mort de Charles le Chauve jusqu'au commencement du onzième siècle Adolf Ebert, 1889 The Patristic Text in the Confessional Age (16th-17th Centuries)

Jean-Louis Quantin, 2024-12-16 This volume follows the paradoxical trajectory of patristic studies in early modern Europe from their full confessionalization in the mid sixteenth century to the emergence of fringe patristics within minority groups in the early eighteenth century The appeal to the Fathers which was meant to buttress established orthodoxies powerfully contributed to their dissolution in the internal strifes of seventeenth century churches especially on grace and predestination An ample English introduction with rich notes surveys the flourishing field of patristic reception and advocates for a historical rather than theological or literary approach Port-Royal et la littérature Philippe Sellier, 1999 Catholic

Particularity in Seventeenth-Century French Writing Richard Parish, 2011-07-28 le christianisme est trange Pascal Pens es Pascal s assertion that Christianity is strange provides the theme for Richard Parish s exploration of Catholic particularity as it was expressed in the writing of the French seventeenth century This was a period of quite exceptional fertility in a range of genres apologetics sermons devotional manuals catechisms martyr tragedies lyric poetry polemic and spiritual autobiography Parish examines a broad cross section of this corpus with reference to the topics of apologetics physicality language discernment polemics and salvation and draws evidence both from canonical figures Pascal Bossuet F nelon St Fran ois de Sales Madame Guyon and from less easily available texts Parish aims to consider all those distinctive features that the heritage of the Catholic Reformation brought to the surface in France and to do so in support of the numerous ways in which Christian doctrine could be understood as being strange it is by turns contrary to expectations paradoxical divisive carnal and inexpressible These features are exploited imaginatively in the more conventional literary forms didactically in pulpit oratory and empirically in the accounts of personal spiritual experience In addition they are manifested polemically in debates surrounding penance authority inspiration and eschatology and often push orthodoxy to its limits and beyond in the course of their articulation This volume provides an unsettling account of a belief system to which early modern France often unquestioningly subscribed and shows how the element of cultural assimilation of Catholic Christianity into much of Western Europe only tenuously contains a subversive and counter intuitive creed The degree to which that remains the case will be for the reader to decide American Theological Inquiry, Volume Two, Issue One Gannon Murphy, 2009-01-15 American

Theological Inquiry ATI was formed in 2007 by Drs S Gannon Murphy PhD St David s College Univ Wales Theology Presbyterian Reformed and Stephen Patrick PhD Univ Illinois Philosophy Eastern Orthodox to open up space for diverse Christian academicians who affirm the Ecumenical Creeds to share research throughout the broader Christian scholarly community in America ATI reaches thousands of Christian scholars throughout the United States particularly specialists in theology Though ATI is a new journal scholars who publish with ATI benefit from exposure to a vast non insular network of

The Places of Early Modern Criticism Gavin Alexander, Emma Gilby, Alexander Marr, 2021-04-29 What is criticism And where is it to be found Thinking about literature and the visual arts is found in many places in treatises apologies and paragoni in prefaces letters and essays in commentaries editions reading notes and commonplace books in images sculptures and built spaces within or on the thresholds of works of poetry and visual art It is situated between different disciplines and methods Critical ideas and methods come into England from other countries and take root in particular locations the court the Inns of Court the theatre the great house the printer's shop the university The practice of criticism is transplanted to the Americas and attempts to articulate the place of poetry in a new world And commonplaces of classical poetics and rhetoric serve both to connect and to measure the space between different critical discourses Tracing the history of the development of early modern thinking about literature and the visual arts requires consideration of various kinds of place material textual geographical and the practices particular to those places it also requires that those different places be brought into dialogue with each other This book brings together scholars working in departments of English modern languages and art history to look at the many different places of early modern criticism It argues polemically for the necessity of looking afresh at the scope of criticism and at what happens on its margins and for interrogating our own critical practices and disciplinary methods by investigating their history

The Philosophers and the Bible Antonella Del Prete, Anna Lisa Schino, Pina Totaro, 2021-12-13 The Bible is the crucible within which were forged many of the issues most vital to philosophy during the early modern age Different conceptions of God the world and the human being have been constructed or deconstructed in relation to the various approaches and readings of the Holy Scriptures This book explores several of the ways in which philosophers interpreted and made use of the Bible It aims to provide a new perspective on the subject beyond the traditional opposition faith versus science and to reflect the philosophical ways in which the Sacred Scriptures were approached Early modern philosophers can thus be seen to have transformed the traditional interpretation of the Bible and emphasized its universal moral message In doing so they forged new conceptions about nature politics and religion claiming the freedom of thought and scientific inquiry that were to become the main features of modernity Contributors include Simonetta Bassi Stefano Brogi Claudio Buccolini Simone D Agostino Antonella Del Prete Diego Donna Matteo Favaretti Camposampiero Guido Giglioni Franco Giudice Sarah Hutton Giovanni Licata douard Mehl Anna Lisa Schino Luisa Simonutti Pina Totaro and Francesco Toto
